Cutting Out Fire Hall Brings Reaction

The present Yates Street fire hall, soon to be abandoned by a cost-conscious City Council, was built in 1899. It was one of the first organized fire stations in this district after the volunteer fire brigade had been disbanded and the City Council had taken on paid personnel. It was built when the "ladder and bucket" brigade was still in operation. In 1918 the last of the horse-drawn fire engines was discarded. The volunteers operated first from the building now the City Hall.

Fire Chief Will Not Take Responsibility for Lives

IN CASE YOU'D FORGOTTEN, TODAY IS DEADLINE FOR THAT TAX RETURN

If you haven't done it all ready, mister, you'd better get busy and do it tonight.

Make out your 1951 income tax return, that is.

And make sure you get it into a mail box where it will be picked up before midnight. If it's not post-marked until tomorrow, you've had it. Or rather, the income tax folks will have it . . . will have it late, and they'll charge you an extra 5 per cent for keeping them waiting.

In case you've forgotten, the correct mail address is simply District Taxation Office, Belmont Building, Victoria, B.C.

The collectors don't like getting cash through the mail but will be only too happy to receive a cheque. It should be made payable to the Receiver-General of Canada.

Fire Hall Abandonment Brings Strong Protest

Any loss of life resulting from abolition of the Yates Street fire hall and reduction of staff will be on the shoulders of the mayor and aldermen.

Fire Chief Frank W. Briers said today he would assume no responsibility.

"The department is entirely unbalanced," he said. "They'll be responsible for loss of life or anything else from here on. They're not holding me responsible."

In the area being serviced by the Yates Street fire hall there are 14 schools and 21 nursing homes, according to David M. Pye, president of the firemen's union.

Included are St. Joseph's Hospital, Royal Jubilee and Veterans Hospital and homes for the aged men and women.

Executive of Local 730 of the International Association of Firefighters met for an hour and a half today to map out a plan of action.

They said they want the public to realize inadequacy of the present protection service.

Council sitting as a committee of the whole on estimates Tuesday approved a recommendation from Ald. Waldo Skillings, chairman of fire wardens that the No. 2 hall be abolished and 20 firemen dismissed at May 31. The figure was later altered to 14 firemen. The department itself estimates about 18. There are four halls at present.

Protection Said 'Very Thin'

Ald. Skillings felt the Burnside Hall and James Bay Hall could handle the area now covered by the Yates Street station. Union officials said it was spreading the protection "very thinly."

"They're balancing lives against dollars," said Mr. Pye. "We don't feel the taxpayer wants economy that way.

"We know if we had a major conflagration with a double alarm in the city and a householder's home caught fire, it would burn to the ground."

When Chief Brier's letter of protest was read at council Tuesday, Ald. Skillings indicated it was routine for a man in that position to write as he had done.

"It was no formality as far as I am concerned," said the chief.

When asked today if it was a warning, he said yes. He said the fire service will be drastically curtailed.

Ald. Frank Mulliner at Tuesday's meeting termed it "discourtesy" that the chief was not advised of the fire warden's recommendation. Ald. Brent Murdoch and Ald. Jim Neely said they felt the chief should have been called in.

"In addition to a fire insurance rate boost, taxpayers will have to take out additional private fire insurance because of the curtailed service," said one union official.

"They are endeavoring to save money but are taking away from the taxpayers, a vital cog in the civic machine," said Mr. Pye.

If 14 men are dismissed it will include two probationers, nine third-class firemen and three second-class firemen. If 20 are let go, five first-class firemen—men with four years' experience—will be included.

U.S. Steel Production Stops, Will Hit Canada

650,000 Men in Swiftest Strike

PITTSBURGH, April 30 (AP)—Steelworkers who struck when a judge said the United States government could not be their boss throttled steel production today in the quickest steel-plant shutdown in history.

A halt in the defence-vital steel industry within hours seemed certain. About 650,000 workers are idle.

Mill after mill went silent as companies and union maintenance crews banked furnaces following hours of confusion at the start of the walkout Tuesday night.

President Philip Murray of both the C.I.O. and the United Steelworkers' Union ordered the strike when a federal judge ruled that President Truman acted illegally in seizing the steel industry April 9 to avert a strike.

FEAR DAMAGE

Executives feared the unprecedented haste with which workers poured out of the plants would damage equipment. But their worries appeared groundless.

In many plants workers themselves made sure standby crews remained to cool off furnaces.

At Cleveland, Republic Steel Corp., reported its plants throughout the U.S. will be completely shut down within three hours. In the past, steel companies have taken two and three days to complete an orderly shut-down.

The first unemployment in allied industry was reported by U.S. Steel, which said all its coal miners have been furloughed.

The steel stoppage began in Gary, Ind., within an hour after a federal judge nullified government seizure of the steel industry.

Pickets popped up at plant gates everywhere. Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Buffalo and Baltimore were among the first to report workers walking out.

DROP TOOLS

Most of the workers waited until their local union offices received Murray's cease-work order. But many of them dropped their tools and picked up their lunch boxes as soon as they heard of the court decision.

The U.S.W.'s contract with practically all major steel producers expired Jan. 1. Union-industry negotiations produced no new pact. Federal mediators failed to break the deadlock on the union's demand for an 18½ cent hourly wage boost, union shop and other objectives.

A 17½-cent hourly pay increase and a union shop, plus other benefits was recommended. U.S.W. accepted. Industry balked. President Truman averted a strike April 9 by seizing the steel industry. The companies successfully fought the action by getting a federal court injunction. An hour later they were strike-bound.

Wheeling Steel Corp. was one of the few companies which reported damage to plant facilities as a result of the hasty leave-taking of workers.

Wheeling Steel issued a statement which said:

"Extent of the damage to coke ovens, furnaces and other equipment at the Steubenville, O., plant could not be ascertained."

GOVERNMENT SEEKS DELAY

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP).—Government lawyers said today they will take to the Supreme Court within six days an appeal from Judge David Pine's ruling that the steel seizure was illegal.

Holmes Baldridge, chief government lawyer, filed formal papers with the U.S. Court of Appeals asking an immediate stay pending a Supreme Court review of Pine's ruling.

A "stay" would nullify for the time being an order from Pine that the mills must be returned to their private owners.

Shortage Will Be Felt Here

Bearing out what industrial leaders are saying across the province, officials at Victoria dockyards forecast an eventual slowdown because of the United States steel strike.

At Vancouver severe setbacks in British Columbia's booming industrial expansion threatened today as a result of the U.S. embargo on steel shipments and the steel workers' strike.

NEED PIPE

Major projects in pipelines, hydroelectric, pulp, chemicals and building construction are faced with varying degrees of new difficulty as American mills closed.

The Aluminum Company of Canada, however, reported that the embargo and strike will have no immediate serious effect on its multi-million dollar construction project in northern B.C.

Deliveries of pipe from Consolidated Western Steel Company of San Francisco might seriously hamper the Trans-Mountain oil pipeline.

There was no immediate comment from the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Ltd., which has a large construction program under way.

In Victoria, the two major yards, Victoria Machinery Depot and Yarrows, are both busy at present on a variety of new construction, re-build and repair jobs, in most of which steel plays an important part.

Like other Canadian industries, they have been taking U.S. steel on a monthly allocation basis.

SHIPBUILDING

"Even a strike of two weeks or a month would effect our deliveries for up to six months," Harold Husband, managing director of V.M.D. explained. "Our allocation will be cut off and not resumed until the U.S. steel industry has built up its inventories.

Even before the strike, shipyard activities here have been hampered by short supplies of steel.

Steel is available for projects which the provincial public works department has underway, it was learned today.

However, if the U.S. steel strike should be prolonged it it might delay actual undertaking of certain projects now in the planning stage.

Steel is chiefly required for bridge building.

"We have enough to go on with for the present," C. K. Saunders, chief engineer for provincial bridge constructions, assured. "We won't be affected unless the strike should last an unusually long time."

'Typhoid' Suspect Is Cleared

A worker in the Gordon Head Military Camp cook house, who was suspected of being a typhoid carrier and caused imposition of a close quarantine at the camp Tuesday, was found today to be perfectly well.

The quarantine was in force at 8.15 a.m., and was lifted the same night.

At first suspicion that there might be cause for an outbreak of disease the army acted swiftly.

"Suspicion was aroused through a routine medical check," an army spokesman said. "The army medical people advised us to take quarantine action, so we didn't waste any time."

The camp has resumed its normal activity, he said.

In announcing the quarantine Tuesday camp officials said it was purely precautionary. There had been no cases of typhoid, they said, but the isolation was to protect the civilian population and camp personnel.

2 More Fires On Vancouver Waterfront

VANCOUVER, April 30 (BUP).—Damage was unofficially estimated at $50,000 today following the fourth multi-alarm fire in southwestern British Columbia in six days.

A two-alarm blaze burned through a shingle mill on the False Creek section of the Vancouver waterfront Tuesday night. Firemen quickly brought it under control and prevented it from spreading.

No one was injured.

In another fire today the tugboat office of Stradiotti Brothers Ltd. on the north arm of the Fraser River was destroyed. Loss is estimated at $10,000.

Other major fires in the southwestern part of the province were a $3,500,000 blaze that ate through part of the United Grain Growers Terminal here last Wednesday; a $150,000 fire aboard the Dutch passenger-freighter Dongedyk

NO WORD HERE ON EMBARGO

An immediate imposition of the provincial meat embargo seems unlikely despite the newly discovered outbreak of hoof-and-mouth disease in southern Saskatchewan.

No government officials were available here today to say what the official B.C. attitude is toward the new prairie outbreak, but members of the department said they would have been notified by now had there been any thought of again closing the border to meat shipments from the other side of the Rockies.

New Hospital Insurance Scheme in Tory Platform

VANCOUVER, April 30 (CP).—A new plan of government hospital insurance, on a non-compulsory and non-monopolistic basis with the elimination of co-insurance, was proposed today in a 12-point platform presented to the Progressive Conservative party convention here.

The platform, presented for approval of the 250 convention delegates, said: "We recognized the widespread dissatisfaction with the hospital insurance service as presently carried on in the province."

The platform also pledges a review of school finances, and affirms the party's "belief in the democratic system of non-sectarian schools as at present established by law in British Columbia."

The platform also pledges a reduction by 30 per cent in the cost of license fees on all passenger automobiles.

Other planks call for appointment of a commission of inquiry to review the present forest management policy; extension of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway into Vancouver "with the final object in view of extending the railway from Prince George into the Peace River area."

Dealing with labor-management relations, the platform says:

"The B.C. Progressive Conservative party is pledged to give consideration to the reports of the Industrial Conciliation Act inquiry board report, and to the report of Chief Justice Sloan on the Workmen's Compensation Act, at the next session of the Legislature, in the best interests of labor, consumers and industry."

A commission of inquiry into forest management would be asked to make recommendations as to how:

1. To ensure perpetual yield of our forests. 2. Provide adequate opportunity for small loggers, mill operators and all others who desire to use and develop the forest resources of the province. 3. To safeguard for the public the mining, power, fishing and recreational resources within all management license areas.

Other planks in the platform are:

Highways: We propose to continue and to accelerate the highway program laid down by the Conservative section of the Coalition in 1943, which has been carried out continuously since then.

Agriculture: We advocate a reorganization and extension of the services of the department of agriculture, to make the services of the department, particularly in the information field, more widely available to the farmers.

We propose to negotiate with the federal government to make the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act applicable to the whole of B.C., so that our fertile but undeveloped agricultural areas can be brought under irrigation or be reclaimed.

Power development: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party will implement the Electric Power Act in accordance with the original intention of the legislation, to provide power and light to our rural areas.

Provincial-municipal taxation reform: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party proposes the payment of grants in all areas where there is provincial government real property.

Export trade: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party is deeply concerned over the deterioration of conditions in our basic industries in British Columbia due to loss of export trade..

It is the firm belief and determination of the party that some method can and must be found to simplify financial arrangements between the dollar and sterling areas of the Commonwealth and other nations. The Progressive Conservative party will use its best efforts to bring about a betterment of trade within the Commonwealth.

Liquor plebiscite: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party stands for local option.

TORY HOPEFULS TO BE CHOSEN ON THURSDAY

Victoria members of the Progressive Conservative Party meet Thursday night to choose three persons to carry the Tory banner in Victoria on June 12 provincial election day.

The P.C. nominating meeting will complete the list of candidates of all parties seeking provincial government seats in the Greater Victoria area.

A four-way race is in the offing for the Progressive Conservative rally. Four persons who have indicated they will bid for the three candidate vacancies are: Mrs. Margaret Harvey, prominent clubwoman; Reginald Hayward, Jr., funeral home director; Albert de B. McPhillips, a lawyer, and Walter S. Miles, shipping agent and Chamber of Commerce leader.

Six Red Jets Shot Down by Allied Planes

SEOUL, April 30 (AP)—United Nations planes today shot down six Communist Mig-15 jet fighters and damaged four in battles today over North Korea, the United States Fifth Air Force announced.

U.S. Sabre jet pilots knocked down the half dozen Migs and damaged three in a fight just south of the Yalu River border between Manchuria and Korea.

A U.S. Marine Corps plane damaged another.

Woman Victim Of Axe Attack In Poor Shape

POWELL RIVER, B.C., April 30 (CP)—Guarded by police, a man lay in hospital here today accused of a hatchet-and-razor attack on his estranged wife. His young daughter was an eye-witness.

Police said millworker Charles Martin attacked his wife Tuesday and then ripped at his own throat with the razor while their 12-year-old daughter Sandra looked on in horror.

The woman survived, although she was reported near death with head wounds when she was admitted to hospital at this pulp and paper town 73 miles up-coast from Vancouver.

Sandra, unharmed, but almost speechless from shock, told officers she tried in vain to stop the attack on her mother.

The man and wife, both about 40, came here a few years ago with their two daughters from Drumheller, Alta.

Police said no charges have yet been laid. They are waiting until they know more about the woman's chances of survival.

Ike Wins Great Primary Victory

'Looks Serious' He Says When Even Democrats Put Him in Second Spot

BOSTON, April 30 (AP)—General Eisenhower's popular vote total passed the 229,000 mark in the Massachusetts primary today, and a near-sweep of the delegate elections virtually closed the gap between him and Sen. Robert Taft in their race for the Republican presidential nomination.

It was almost a shutout by Eisenhower, his most convincing primary victory to date.

Along with his overwhelming count in the Republican election, Eisenhower also got a Democratic vote big enough to put him in second place behind Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, the expected winner.

IS THAT GOOD?

When reporters gave him the figures at an airport in Frankfurt, Germany, the general grinned and said: "Is that good?" Later, in Paris, he said the results were "an overpowering sort of thing. It has begun to look kind of serious."

Massachusetts has 38 grand old party convention votes, and Eisenhower today has 29 of them as a result of 27 victories and two previously allotted by agreement. Taft won one delegate and also got two by agreement. The other six presumably will be uncommitted at the nomination convention next July.

Eisenhower's country-wide delegate total moved up to 265 as a result of the added delegates. Three more for Taft put his tally at 268, although his managers are claiming 305.

The figures, compiled by the Associated Press, are based on delegates pledged, favorable, or publicly committed to the two leading Republican contenders for the nomination.

Tabulations from 1,674 precincts out of 1,739 showed:

Republicans
Eisenhower—229,900.
Taft—99,469.
Gen. Douglas MacArthur—2,120.
Governor Earl Warren—1,396.
Harold E. Stassen—1,161.

Democrats
Kefauver—27,629.
Eisenhower—15,102.
President Truman—7,254.
Taft—5,423.
Senator Paul Dever—2,236.
Governor Adlai Stevenson—1,230.
Senator Richard Russell—645.

Some scattered votes also were cast for Senator Robert Kerr of Oklahoma and W. Averell Harriman of New York, both avowed Democratic candidates.

The votes were all write-ins and are not binding on the delegates.

SHOULD 'ALL BE FIRED'

Liberal Raps Civil Servants for Handling of Foot-Mouth Outbreak

OTTAWA, April 30 (CP). — A Liberal member from Quebec suggested today that federal "civil servants" were responsible for the way in which the foot-and-mouth disease outbreak was handled and they should "all be fired."

Phileas Cote (Matapedia-Matane) told the 60-member Commons agricultural committee that he did not believe either the government or Agriculture Minister Gardiner showed any inefficiency.

"I think civil servants were responsible and I would like to see them all fired," he said.

He made the statement as the committee launched a probe of government handling of the outbreak in south Saskatchewan. Dr. J. Gordon Taggart, deputy minister of agriculture, was the first witness.

The committee had a full turn out, a rare thing for parliament.

Dr. Taggart side-stepped some of the scores of questions fired and said they would be answered by Dr. Thomas Childs, federal veterinary director-general. He declined to discuss government floor prices on meats and after a member insisted, he said he would bring A. M. Shaw, head of the prices support board, as a witness.

However, at one point he said he may have been "guilty" of a delay in informing Mr. Gardiner of an outbreak of an infectious disease in south Saskatchewan, which later turned out to be foot-and-mouth disease.

Dr. Taggart told the committee that he was informed about Feb. 2 or 3 by departmental officials of an outbreak of some unidentified disease which later turned out to be foot-and-mouth disease.

He didn't inform Mr. Gardiner, who was absent from Ottawa, until Feb. 18. He sent him a letter then, addressed to the West Coast. At that time, Mr. Gardiner was somewhere in the Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle area.

Gordon Higgins (P.C., St. John's East) asked why, in view of the seriousness of foot-and-mouth disease, Dr. Taggart hadn't informed his minister immediately.

"I might have been guilty of a delay in advising the minister," Dr. Taggart replied.

ON THE TIMES

By ART STOTT

E. T. Oliver, who was vice-principal of Vancouver's Lord Byng High School until his sixty-fifth birthday and the department of education superannuation regulations combined to put a stop to his work as such, presents an interesting idea in the current "B.C. Teacher."

Mr. Oliver discusses the present course in effective living. It is now being taught by teachers of varying ages. "None of these," says Mr. Oliver, "is going to be able to teach the course effectively. It takes experience to teach a course like that. You have to know something about life. You have to be mellow. . . . What can a youth from 35 to 50 know about effective living—whether that youth be man or maid? The only person who can teach the new course as it ought to be taught is a teacher who has been superannuated at least one year."

Stott

Mr. Oliver expects a new demand for old teachers and thinks perhaps he'll hear the call, too. If he does, he'll turn a deaf ear to it. He's going fishin', or else he's going to take advantage of his chance not to do all the things he doesn't want to do.

In gentle whimsey Mr. Oliver makes a point similar to that advanced by Canadian Congress of Labor president A. R. Mosher, who suggested workers might be entitled to retire at 65 but shouldn't be forced to quit at that age if they don't want to. A dozen editorial writers have said the same thing. They've pointed to the hardship worked on men forced to accept pensions instead of pay cheques. They've objected to the loss of skills and abilities through the enforced idleness of those subject to an arbitrary retirement age ruling.

Retirement Dangerous

Mr. Oliver notes the opinion of some of his friends who see retirement as a very pressing danger. One speaks of the early death of a man forced to quit his job. Another discusses the stroke that followed an active man's withdrawal from business. A third expresses concern over the senility which overtakes some men forced from their occupations by retirement regulations.

The former Lord Byng vice-principal isn't worried about the effects of retirement on himself. He's too busy avoiding the jobs his wife finds for him. But he concedes the point that there is some risk attached to superannuation.

The problem in too many instances seems to be the failure on the part of a potential pensioner to develop constructive uses for his leisure—that, and the balancing of a small, fixed income against high and mobile costs.

Several years ago Sir Rabindrinath Tagore visited Victoria and lectured learnedly about the "Philisophy of Leisure." The Royal Victoria Theatre was filled for that lecture. Virtually everyone attending was impressed by the patriarchal poet from India and probably half a dozen in the audience were impressed by what he had to say. The rest just listened and made those polite noises people make when they refuse to admit an address has gone over their heads.

He Didn't Get Through

So Tagore didn't get his philosophy of leisure through to the western minds of the Victoria audience. And ever since, just as before, people have been having leisure thrust upon them without knowing quite how to use it.

Now it seems to me that leisure shouldn't come at a person suddenly. The individual ought to be ready for it. And, as far as I can see, the only way to be ready, is to make adequate preparations.

The way to do that is to arrange for an interim period of retirement on superannuation. That can be done by providing pensions at 40 and carrying the pensioner through until he's, say, 65. By that time he'd probably be fed up with the whole business of retirement and be ready to go back to work.

The scheme looks good from two points of view. It would give youth a chance to move ahead, taking over the more senior positions usually held by people over 40, and by providing job opportunities after 65, it would avoid the desolation now facing so many active people forced to retire with years of good service still in them.

In the 40's, too, a person should be young enough to enjoy retirement.

Of course the Stott formula of prolonged holidays through middle age isn't going to get anywhere. But a guy in his 40's can dream, can't he?

C.P.R. Workers Will Fight B.C.H.I.S. Plan

C.P.R. employees throughout the province are preparing to offer tough resistance to any attempt to incorporate the company's medical protection scheme into the B.C. hospital insurance plan, it was learned today.

Recommendation that the C.P.R. medical scheme, the Medical Association of B.C., and the Telephone Employees' Medical Services Association of B.C., which now are all outside the scope of B.C.H.I.S., be incorporated as part of the government scheme, was included in the report of the special legislative committee which recently investigated the service.

Unions representing the estimated 10,000 railway employees are behind the resistance move. A Vancouver spokesman for the unions says the matter will be made an election issue. Union representatives will be attending political rallies in all sections to ask candidates their stand on the question.

C.P.R. employees say the company plan gives them more benefits for less money than B.C.H.I.S.

"For $6 a month married persons with dependents get complete hospital, medical, doctor, surgical benefits—everything," a spokesman said. "Single persons get the same for $3 and pensioners get it all for $2 a month."

No Man Beyond Help, Edmison Tells Meeting

More privileges for prison inmates serving the last part of their terms was advocated by J. Alex Edmison, Q.C., chief adviser to the John Howard Society and assistant principal at Queen's University.

Mr. Edmison, speaking before the Victoria John Howard Society Tuesday, said prisoners should be given an opportunity to "acclimatize" themselves to the life of the outside world before being released from prison.

In his lecture on prisoner rehabilitation, Mr. Edmison traced the progress of penal institution reform since an 1849 royal commission investigated conditions at Kingston, Ont., penitentiary.

He said there was plenty of evidence on file to show that "no man is beyond help" and can be made a useful member of society.

"One man had 28 convictions, and was considered hopeless, but because of an interest taken in him by a prison official, is now foreman in a Toronto plumbing firm," he pointed out.

Johnson Quiets Critics Of Party's Forest Policy

By GORDON FORBES
Times Legislative Reporter

PORT ALBERNI, April 30—The Liberal party's pledge to name a legislative committee to investigate the effect of forest management licenses on small operators appears to have temporarily quietened extreme discontent over the issue.

Premier Byron Johnson, in that part of the country where criticism of the scheme is hottest, Tuesday night addressed a large public meeting in the Canadian Legion Hall, and not a single question was asked on the controversial issue during the usual question period. The premier had come prepared for a barrage.

The last two house committees appointed by the legislature—on hospital insurance and labor—gained themselves reputations for doing thorough jobs and many small operators feel their problem will be given a fair hearing by the new inquiry committee.

Premier Johnson appealed to the small operators to be patient and he promised the "interests of the people here will get fast attention" from the inquiry committee.

He pointed out that small operators in other sections of B.C. have no complaints about granting of big forest management licenses. He stressed, however, he realized there is a "local condition" in the Port Alberni area.

"But try and think of the overall picture," said Premier Johnson.

"Don't rock the boat because of a local condition."

He recalled he has been asked to issue no more licenses. The premier said such action would have serious, far-reaching effects and would discourage investment at a time when everything is being done to encourage it. . . .

"Let us not do anything to discourage capital from flowing into this great province," he added.

The premier and Mrs. Johnson motored from Comox to Port Alberni Tuesday morning, and the premier addressed the Port Alberni and District Chamber of Commerce in what he termed "a non-political political meeting."

COURTESY CALLS

After a luncheon he was paid a courtesy call by Port Alberni Mayor Loran K. Jordon and Alberni Mayor Ben Wright. He then visited the new Alberni and District Junior-Senior High School and later, with Mrs. Johnson, attended a tea. In between times he managed to work in a meeting with the executive of the local Liberal Association.

The election campaign will take him to Nanaimo Wednesday, Esquimalt on Thursday, Duncan on Friday and Saanich on Saturday.

During his Port Alberni speech Premier Johnson drew the support of the meeting when he refused to discuss the controversial separate school issue.

"What do you intend to do about separate schools?" was the only question asked during the meeting's question period. It came from a woman at the rear of the Canadian Legion Hall.

Premier Johnson referred briefly to the Liberal convention's stand on the matter last week, and then said:

WOULD NOT DISCUSS IT

"I don't believe a thing like that should be mixed up in a political campaign and I won't discuss it."

He sat down amidst applause.

Dealing with hospital insurance generally, the premier said 741,000 accounts of patients, totaling $56,000,000, have been paid by the hospital insurance scheme since its inception three and one-half years ago.

Total of 15,000 of the bills were between $400 and $1,000, 21,300 between $1,000 and $2,000, 290 over $2,000 and some were as high as between $4,000 and $7,000.

"I wonder how many persons understand what broad protection and service our hospital insurance plan gives?" asked Premier Johnson.

Painters Seek Strike Tally

VANCOUVER, April 29 (CP)—Painters in Vancouver will join the carpenters in seeking a strike vote to back up their demands for wage increases in 1952 labor contracts.

Officials of the Painters' Union, Local 138 (A.F.L.) said Tuesday they will apply for a government-supervised strike vote for 900 painters here.

The decision followed rejection by employers of a conciliation board majority report recommending a 30-cent-an-hour pay increase for brush painters. The present rate is $1.70 an hour.

Vancouver Liberal Candidates Chosen

Two Liberal constituency groups in Vancouver selected their candidates for the June 12 provincial election Tuesday night.

Lawyer J. G. Gould and broker J. Howard Forester were picked as Liberal candidates in the Vancouver-Burrard district, while Alex W. Fisher, former alderman; contractor Ted Burnett and barrister G. Stanley Miller were named to run in Point Grey.

Haggen Named C.C.F. Choice

The C.C.F. announces three more candidates to contest provincial seats in the June 12 election.

Rupert Haggen has been picked to run for re-election in the Grand Forks-Greenwood electoral district; Graham Simms, 39-year-old lawyer, will seek the Nelson-Creston seat, and H. S. Kenyon, of Penticton, will run in Similkameen.

At Kamloops, Progressive Conservatives have named George H. Greer to represent the riding.

UNSEEN FOR 20 YEARS

New Jersey Woman Hunts Father Here

A New Jersey woman has appealed here for help in locating a father she hasn't seen for 20 years.

Mrs. Leon Lovett said her father's name is Filedon William Summers, "usually called William or Bill Summers."

She said her parents separated when she was six and her father subsequently went to the Western United States, later Canada, and remarried following the death of his first wife.

He is described as being 48, five feet five inches in height and weighing between 145 and 150 pounds. He has light blue eyes with a faint cast; light brown wavy hair, thinning; a cleft chin and good teeth. His nose looks as if it had been broken.

Mrs. Lovett said her father was a quiet man with "good character and habits," who had served in the U.S. Navy in the 1920's and did diner and restaurant work as a counterman and short order cook in civilian life.

"He may own a small restaurant or diner at this time," she said.

A New Jersey librarian, Mrs. Lovett said she wanted her two children—one a polio victim—to see their grandfather.

She has written hundreds of letters in the search for the missing man.

Any information should be sent to Mrs. Leon Lovett, librarian, public library, Beach Haven, New Jersey.

Auto Firm Dispute Up for Conciliation

A conciliation board will be asked to consider differences between the auto equipment wholesale firm of Whitaker and Revercomb Ltd. and the Automotive Workers' Union (T.L.C.-A.F.L.).

The two parties have been unable to agree upon a wage scale for the current year. The union is seeking wage increases of about $35 a month for machinists and partsmen.

RESTITUTION—An unidentified man at Topeka, Kansas, who says he robbed a bank four years ago and wants to "get right with God," will make a public confession at a Topeka, Kansas, church Sunday.

A sheriff with a wire recorder will be in the congregation. The mystery man faces almost certain arrest and prosecution.

But the minister, through whom the self-designated bank-robber has arranged to "make full restitution," said the expected presence of Jackson County Sheriff Ernest White in the church Sunday will make no difference. The public confession will go off as planned.

The bank robber apparently already has begun monetary restitution of his share of nearly one thousand dollars which three men scooped up at the Hoyt, Kansas bank on May 17, 1948.

DANGEROUS —Exposing yourself to a small risk of an infectious disease every day for a long time is just as dangerous as getting one big dose of the infection all at one time.

This discovery, which goes contrary to U.S. Public Health Service beliefs, was reported to the Society of American Bacteriologists today by Doctors L. J. Goldberg and H. M. S. Watkins of the Naval biological laboratory, University of California, Berkeley, Calif.

The public health relief has been that very small numbers of germs might not make you ill no matter how often you got them. Such germs could come from association with sick persons for short periods of time.

RECOMPENSE — At Boston, Mass., Austin A. Ells, 49, a seaman, was awarded $9,500 in court Tuesday for injuries suffered at sea which he claimed marred his sense of taste and smell. Ells sued the owners of the Boston trawler William J. O'Brien claiming he was struck in the face September 4, 1950, by a piece of the trawler's rigging.

UN-PLEDGE—At San Francisco elimination of the "no smoking" pledge by ministerial candidates will be recommended to the Methodist General Conference, leaders of the committee on the ministry reported today. Candidates now are required to promise not to use tobacco.

The committee's majority report will recommend that the candidate be asked instead to promise to lead "an exemplary life free from all harmful practices."

ABDUCTED—Vancouver police were hunting five "hot-rod" youths today who allegedly abducted an 18-year-old boy, knocked him unconscious, drove to a deserted part of the city and robbed him of $2.

Don Butt, 18, told police the gang approached him on the sidewalk and asked him where he was going. When he told them it was none of their business, they slugged him on the head, he said.

Butt said he apparently was dragged into a "hot-rod" car and driven to a sparsely settled residential district, where the youths let him go. He said $2 and street car tickets were missing.

SPOTTERS — Saskatchewan may soon have a corps of civilian volunteer aircraft spotters. F.O. A. K. Shepherd, commander of No. 3 Ground Observer Corps Unit, announced that plans are set for the establishment of such a corps.

The operation will be under the direction of R.C.A.F. filter stations in Saskatoon and Regina which Shepherd says he hopes to have co-activated in 90 days. Each centre will be staffed by two officers and four airmen who will be responsible for administration and training of civilian volunteers.

Need for Bill Of Rights Seen for B.C.

Need for a provincial bill of rights was the principal subject of an election address given Tuesday night by Frank Snowsell, C.C.F. candidate in Saanich at St. Martin's Hall, Obed Avenue.

Mr. Snowsell promised enactment of such a bill would be one of the first undertakings of a C.C.F. government.

A school teacher, he pointed out his participation in politics could not affect his employment since he had the protection of the B.C. Teachers' Federation, but maintained there were many persons not as fortunate.

"It's a disgusting thing that a large percentage of our people can't participate in politics for fear of persecution or retaliation by their employers," he said.

The speaker singled out government employees as the largest single group affected. He said in Saskatchewan the C.C.F. government's bill of rights allowed government workers to campaign openly against the government if they so desired.

Average cost of a Canadian telephone poll was estimated at $6.77 in 1951.

Police Uncover Juvenile Members of K.K.K. Club

Evidence of a hooded teen-age boys' club, modelled along Klu Klux Klan lines was uncovered by Orillia, Ont., police, following the arrest of 14 young boys suspected of such minor crimes as siphoning of gas, breaking into business premises and thefts from parked cars. Police believe the club's 15-year-old leader got the idea for the organization from a lurid crime magazine. Main membership requirement into the gang, which featured masks, weapons and oaths of secrecy was that members must have taken part in a criminal expedition. Another club rule was tar-feathering routine for members who "squealed" to police. Models are shown wearing masks like those used by boys, all between 13 and 15.

Dreher Draws Release From Calgary Police

CALGARY, April 30 (CP).—Constable W. L. Dreher has been dismissed from the Calgary city police force, the police commission announced Tuesday.

Dreher, husband of Gwendolyn Dreher, who recently was acquitted of murdering her former fiance, Clarence M. Franklin, had been employed in a licensing bureau at the city police station since the charge was laid against his wife.

A statement from commission secretary Warren Stewart said: "The Calgary police commission, at a meeting held April 25, decided to discontinue with the employment of Constable W. L. Dreher."

Franklin was fatally shot last November 31 while in the Dreher's basement suite here. No other charges have been laid.

Drowns When Truck Plunges Into River

SILVERTON, B.C., April 30 (CP)—Tony Kabatikoff of Winlaw, in Slocan Valley, drowned Tuesday when a truck he was driving plunged into Slocan Lake near Silverton.

Passersby said the steering gear on the truck disconnected causing the truck to run off the highway and drop down a 20-foot bank into 20 feet of water.

Kabatikoff was employed by Western Exploration Ltd., at Silverton and is survived by his wife in Winlaw.

U.N. 'Package' Cease Fire Deal Would Permit New Red Airfields

MUNSAN, Korea, April 30 (CP).—The Communists are expected to call for an armistice meeting in the next few days which may make or break Korean truce talks.

The outcome will depend on Communist reaction to a secret United Nations package offer.

Dispatches from Washington quoted Allied diplomats as saying the proposal handed Communist negotiators Sunday is "about the last offer we can make."

The Washington view was that there is a 50-50 chance this offer would lead to an actual armistice or an ultimate breakdown of the prolonged talks. It all depends on the decision reached in Red capitals where the plan is being studied.

Officials in Washington privately agreed the secret package offer was a three-point program keyed to the U.N. demand for "non-forcible repatriation" of prisoners of war, which the Reds repeatedly have called a "preposterous demand."

Washington dispatches indicated the Allied package deal would (1) Allow Reds to rebuild North Korean military airfields during a truce if, (2) the Communists accept the U.N. principle for prisoner exchange and (3) drop their nomination of Russia as a "neutral nation" to help police an armistice.

Still More Pork

SINCE THE SUBJECT WAS LAST mentioned here the Canadian government has been busily canning pork. According to the reliable Winnipeg Free Press Weekly, more than 20,000,000 pounds of pork have been canned under the government's policy of holding up pork prices. The consumer is refused lower prices, which would encourage him to eat pork, and he is paying in taxes the cost of canning the swelling surplus.

The government evidently has got deeper into this economic morass than it planned. When it could not find sufficient refrigerator space to contain the pork which the public refused to buy, it undertook to can 10,000,000 pounds and hold it off the market. This amount has been doubled. For the moment, the Free Press Weekly reports, canning will cease. The government has found sufficient cold storage space to handle the pork which it continues to buy from the farmers at the high fixed price.

Now the government is looking around desperately for someone who will take the canned and frozen pork off its hands. The Canadian public would buy at least a great part of it if the price were reduced. But the price must be held up to protect the pork producers and the public must pay the cost, as yet uncalculated.

Possibly the government will be able to sell its accumulated pork to Britain or some other country. Perhaps we should give it away to our British friends who need it. But if we give it away or sell it at low prices we should understand that the public, by high pork prices and taxes, will pay the losses.

All this is only the beginning. The government has also guaranteed a high beef price. If necessary it will buy up huge quantities of beef to prevent the public securing cheaper meat and to assure the producer his present return. What will happen to this beef no one seems to know. And the latest outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease probably will postpone for some time our chance to sell in the American market.

The first and most obvious solution of this gigantic national problem is to reduce beef prices and encourage the sale of beef at home. If the American embargo continues this sensible obvious solution may be unavoidable.

Meanwhile members of Parliament are demanding a price floor under cheese. No doubt there will be the same demand for a floor under salmon, since we have lost our British market. The apple growers, for the same reason, will expect a floor under apple prices. It will be just as logical (though the law does not cover lumber) to expect a floor under lumber prices, now threatened with a collapse.

If this process goes much further it will become quite unmanageable. There will not be enough money in the national treasury to finance it.

What the producer and the consumer alike must remember is that if any product is not sold it is a dead loss to the community. The loss may be disguised. It may be re-distributed between different groups in the nation but it is loss just the same. No one can avoid it in the end. The more the law of the market is defied, the more the natural price is resisted, the greater the loss will be.

Floor prices on farm and fish products were created by Parliament, as Mr. King, their author said, to prevent excessive hardships to producers. They were intended to be the counterpart, for farmers and fishermen, of unemployment insurance for other workers.

They are now being used to prevent those readjustments of prices which are compelled by the state of the world market, to kill that very flexibility of the economic system which keeps it healthy, to damage the consumer and the taxpayers and finally the producer himself. For Canada, living mainly on the world market, cannot escape it, cannot eat all its own food and must sell it, and other products like lumber, at the price which the market will pay.

Trouble for the New President

ONE OF THE LITTLE NOTED PARADOXES of the American election campaign now under way is that the Republicans probably will win the Presidency and fail to win control of the legislature. A Republican President very likely will face a Democratic Senate.

In the present Congress the Democrats control the Senate by 50 members to 46. That control, of course, is largely fictitious since the Senate actually is controlled by a tacit coalition between the Republicans and the conservative southern Democrats. But in form at least the President has the support of both houses of the legislature.

One-third of the Senate is elected every two years. In the present election 19 Republican senators are up for election as against only 13 Democrats. This gives the Democrats an edge to begin with. Of the 13 Democratic seats to be filled eight are considered quite safe. They lie in states which historically are Democratic. The Republicans can consider only nine of their 19 open seats safe. In the remainder the Democrats have a good chance.

Thus only in five states have the Republicans a real chance to defeat the sitting Democratic senators. The Democrats on the other hand have 10 states where they can hope to unseat the Republican senators.

To win the Senate the Republicans must not only hold all the present 19 seats open at the November election but they must win at least three of the present Democratic seats. This will be extremely difficult when the Republicans risk the loss of some 10 senatorial elections.

A Republican President will face a difficult situation under the best of circumstances. His difficulties will be greatly increased if, from the beginning, he finds the legislature opposed to him. Only a great President can hope to operate successfully in such a situation.

The Senate election is one indication of the fundamental problem of this election. It is to unify a nation now split and bewildered by the decline of a party long in office, by gigantic foreign and domestic problems and by burdens of all sorts for which history never prepared it.

The wonder is not that the United States is politically in confusion but that, despite its divisions, it is managing somehow to give the world magnificent leadership at a moment of acute peril. If anyone doubts that let him ask himself what would happen if American leadership, American armed power, American courage and American money were withdrawn.

A Giant To Be Harnessed

THE LAYMAN HAS AS MUCH DIFficulty in grasping the full implications of atomic energy used for peaceful purposes as he does in understanding the terrific power of the bomb.

Rudimentary power installations are already in use. Britain for some time has had an experimental atomic heat plant providing power for electric lights. Similar progress has been made in the United States. The latter country is also at work on atomic engines for submarines and possibly aircraft.

The "atomic age," so glibly spoken of yet still only half-believed, may be much nearer than most of us realize.

As Prime Minister St. Laurent told a group of engineers in Montreal last week, atomic energy will be for this century what steam power was for the last. Taken literally, that could mean that our existing steam and hydro-electric power plants may become as obsolete within the next few decades as did water wheels and muscle power when steam made its appearance. Tremendous as the industrial revolution was a century ago, this change-over could be even greater.

Through economic necessity industry has sought locations near power. The current Alcan project is an obvious example. Waterpower, coal, oil and natural gas have been determining factors in many of our undertakings, balanced by the availability of raw materials and markets.

But the harnessing of the atom will place power where it is desired rather than where nature created it. Even before it can be cheaply produced, as may be the case in the early stages of its application, atomic power can thus revolutionize our economy.

Vast shifts of population should logically follow its development. "Have not" nations, may find themselves unable to compete. Industries long established, centres long inhabited, may find themselves by-passed almost overnight. The upheavals of the 19th century, accentuated by the closer integration of the 20th century world, will likely be repeated.

It needs little imagmatoin to see that peaceful atomic energy may cause as many problems as the warlike variety. Both, bestowing upon man the greatest source of physical strength he has ever known, will require from him in return the utmost in moral strength and understanding.

We can be destroyed by the bomb. But we can also be destroyed by industrial atomic power, if we do not learn to use it, at an early stage, with all the wisdom at our command.

Nowhere to Play

WHILE ESQUIMALT COUNCILLORS debated the merits and disadvantages of locating a new school partly on land owned by the municipality and partly on adjacent property owned by the department of national defense, the question of playground space was raised.

In the opinion of one member of the Esquimalt board, the new school would deprive the municipality of "the only good playground for the children we have." That point was challenged by another councillor who contended construction of a school would still preserve the space for games.

The point, probably minor in the larger question of school location, is nevertheless one which should engage the attention of citizens of this community. As Greater Victoria's population has grown, more and more of the lots where children of an earlier generation used to play have been occupied by homes and public buildings. The child of today cannot slip outside to play on the vacant lot next door because there isn't any vacant lot there.

Provision has been made, of course, for substantial parks in various parts of Greater Victoria. Such facilities are provided for organized games. The fact remains, however, that space is lacking for small children whose parents wish them to play close to home.

The matter is one which municipal councils should not ignore. On them rests some responsibility to see that property is reserved for the use of the young. Unless that provision is made now, the day may arrive when children, too small to compete in organized games in large parks and denied vacant lots through housing developments, may be forced onto the streets for their recreation.

Chips Off The Old Brock

By DAVID BROCK

MY SMALL boy brought home an old collection of the Believe It or Nots of the late Robert Ripley. He thought it was an awfully clever book. So did the late Robert. Ripley thought that Ripley was simply wonderful, I'm afraid. For example, in his introduction he says that only he and a very few other men know what is interesting to the human race! That's a mighty sweeping statement. Bob liked 'em sweeping. Everything was all the biggest in the world to Bob, or the only one in the world, or otherwise exclusive. His desire to be "interesting" in this line led him into some funny mistakes. But when I pointed out a few of these mistakes to my small boy, the boy believed Bob. Bob would have liked that. I didn't, much.

Brock

Years ago I wrote a little verse to this effect:

Only the young will labor very long
Correcting other people when they're wrong.
Smith isn't young, yet wastes his little might Correcting other people when they're right.

Bob suffered from both these ailments at once. He was pedantic about our errors, and a show-off about his own. Perhaps I am being a bit of a pedantic show-off myself in ticking of his mistakes in that book. But you must admit that if anyone ever asked to be quoted chapter and verse it was our boy Bob. He also invited murder.

I didn't wade clear through the book. After noting about 30 mistakes in the first 60 or 70 pages, I quit. What's the use of struggling? I suppose it's his air of infallibility that goads one on. That, and his talk about his "research staff."

SUPPOSING the research staff did prove anything, and he misinterpreted it in his excitement, did they ever dare tell him? From the evidence, I think I can guess. With a feeble library and no research staff, I was able to check a couple of dozen errors in an hour of two. The staff must have caught some of these, surely, even when the stuff was hasty journalism. As for checking before putting it into a permanent book . . . well, there's something devilish odd, believe it or not. Either the staff did little research, or Bob didn't listen to them.

WHAT SORT of mistakes? Oh, piffling ones, mostly. In anyone but the vainglorious and infallible they'd be overlooked. Such things as showing off your knowledge about the Roman general and emperor, Septimius Severus, and spelling him wrong twice in four lines, as Septimus without that second I. Such things as knowing that a pound troy and a pound avoirdupois are different, but implying that an ounce troy and an ounce avoirdupois are the same . . . they're not. Such things as thinking that Mecca in Arabia and the Moslems of Africa are in the Far East. Fancying it was Lindbergh who proved the usefulness of a great circle course in navigation . . . and in this connection, confusing spherical and plane geometry.

THINKING that the yard or arm of a steelyard is a mistaken term because it isn't a yard long! (He should have been hanged at the yardarm for that one). Calling the tiny Welsh village of Llanfair-P.G. a city (this is the village on Anglesey with the very long name that makes the tourists laugh, but the natives just say it as I've written it here). Claiming all possible names for God have exactly four letters . . . among his examples is Zeus, since that has four letters, but he dodges Jovis and Jupiter which are same thing. Jumping to the conclusion that any Yogi must be naked and unkempt. Imagining that any man is the noblest work of God, according to what he took for an unattributed saying; actually, Pope said "an honest man," not just any old man.

SAYING Captain Kidd was not a pirate but suffered the penalty of one. This is most misleading. It is extremely likely that Kidd became a pirate himself, though his privateering record against pirates was good. But in any event, he was hanged for murdering one of his crew with a bucket in a fit of temper . . . don't charge this against the English pirates, boys, he was a Scot.

Well, this game of picking holes in Bob and ripping up Ripley is entirely too easy. Even if he did ask for it. Besides, he used to feel triumphant when chaps didn't believe him, and we don't want to flatter his ghost. Pay no attention to him, it only makes him worse.

FERDINAND

SOME rough-looking foreigners came to repair my septic tank. I am usually glad that I can't understand what foreigners are saying to each other when I employ them, because they may be finding fault with me or the job or the way nature has shaped my face. But I was a little curious to know what these frightful-looking men, at their unpleasant task, were saying and thinking when they began plucking sprigs from my rosemary hedge and sniffing the crushed needles with childlike joy. It was a sight as incongruous as it was charming. I can hardly think the use of rosemary is routine stuff at that job.

CACOPHONY

WHILE looking up something else in a musical dictionary, I found that a Dutch concert is a convivial bout where each man sings a different song and all sing at once. Sounds very like a higgledy-piggledy bed of Dutch tulips, really.

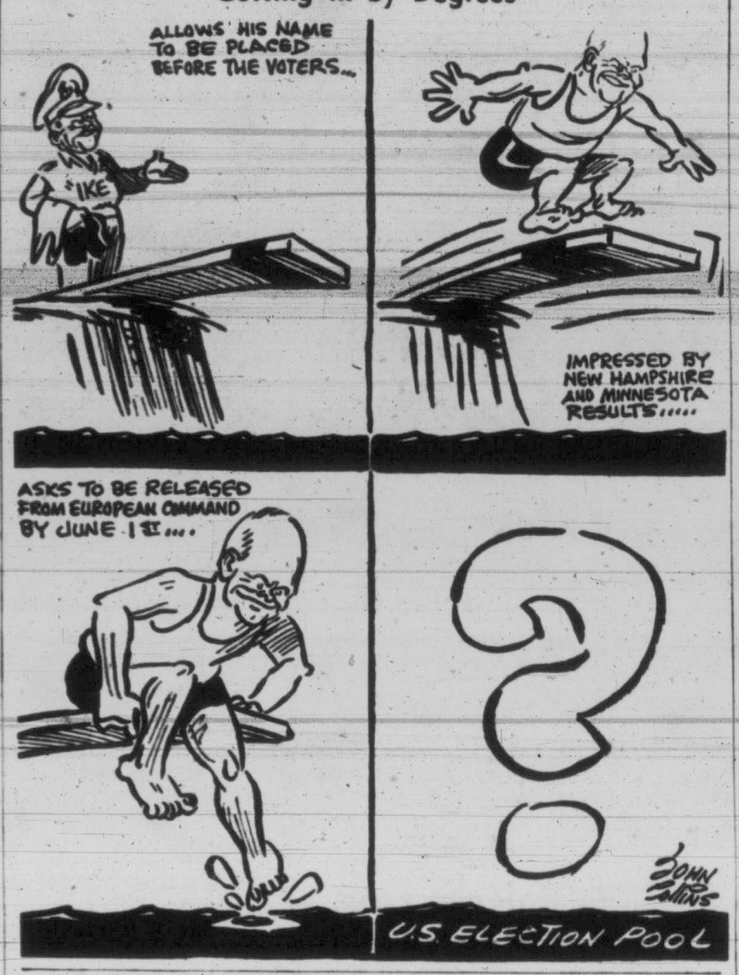
Steel Seizure

New York Times

The power to seize property is the power to destroy, to stifle opinion, to abolish freedom of the press, and a long step down the road to no freedoms at all. The history of our times, in other countries, is eloquent with examples of the servitude to which peoples are delivered by such power.

Our freedoms are under a cloud of doubt until that question of misuse of power is answered.

Getting in by Degrees



Clarifies Alternative Vote

RECENT letters in your forum have raised one or two questions regarding alternative voting as it is to be used in the coming provincial election. I should like to reply to these questions, as it is certainly my earest desire that everyone should understand the procedure as fully as possible.

One point raised is "what becomes of the third choice on the ballot if the candidates shown as first and second choice are eliminated, progressively, as low man?

If Brown, your first choice, is eliminated and there were 100 ballots showing him as first choice, then those 100 ballots are, of course, distributed among the other candidates according to the second choices shown thereon.

Now, suppose Green is next eliminated. If there were 150 ballots showing Green as first choice, and say 50 of Brown's second choices were alloted to Green when Brown was eliminated, then there are 200 ballots now credited to Green that must be redistributed. Only 150 of these will be distributed as to second choice, because the other 50 have already been given to Green as second choice, and he is also now eliminated. Therefore, these 50 ballots will have to be given to the candidate who is third choice on these ballots.

The point to remember is that, at the second count, ballots are distributed as to second choice, but at the third count, both second and third choices must be considered, and at every subsequent count, second, third, fourth and higher choices may have to be considered, depending on whether the lower choices were given to candidates already eliminated.

ELIMINATED

Another fact to consider is that if the candidate for whom you give your first preference is not eliminated, then his second and other choices are not counted—of course, it is impossible for any voter to know whether his candidate will be eliminated or not.

Furthermore, the returning officer, at the final count does not have to count all the ballots over again after receiving the absentee ballots. He has an accounting from each poll of the first preference votes given for each candidate; to these figures he adds the first preference votes given on the absentee ballots for these candidates, and then totals them up. If no candidate has an absolute majority, then the candidate having the lowest total of first preference votes is determined, and his ballots only are removed from the boxes. (They are in envelopes bearing the candidates' names) and are counted for redistribution as to second choices, and so on.

The question of voters in multi-member constituencies, such as Victoria, being unable to mark a first preference for more than one candidate on the same ballot has been raised more than once.

It is true that this limitation exists, but there are also limitations to any method that is suggested as an alternative. If proportional representation rules were followed, then all the names would be listed on one ballot, but the voter would still be able to vote first choice for only one candidate, even though three members were to be elected. It has been said that it would be just as easy to put all the names on one ballot. I presume that the suggestion then is, that three first choices, and one of each subsequent choices be marked by the voter.

COMPLICATED

At the first glance, this seems quite simple, but actually the counting of such a ballot, providing it were properly marked, becomes extremely complicated if every possible combination is allowed for, as it must be. For one thing, it would require the returning officer to count and recount all the ballots cast in his electoral district, sorting out and recording the various combinations of choices shown on the ballots, in order to distribute the eliminated man's next preferences.

The suggestion that all the names be listed on one ballot and that three first, three second and three of each subsequent choice be allowed, seems rather shortsighted. If, for instance, one of the candidates for whom the voter marked a first preference were eliminated as the low man, which candidate would be the second choice that should receive the ballots? There would be three candidates, all marked as second choice, and they would none of them be earmarked as being second choice "if such and such a first choice is eliminated." I do not know of any practical method that could be employed to use this method of marking an alternative ballot.

I trust these remarks will serve to enlighten the obviously interested voters who are sincerely trying to understand the method that has been adopted in bringing alternative voting to this province.

F. HURLEY,
Chief Electoral Officer.

In the concentrated drive in recent years to determine the cause of cancer medical science has learned a great deal. Amongst other things, for example, that there is what might be called a cancer personality. The American Association for Cancer Research has been informed by a number of California research workers that there is some relationship between emotional balance and stress, and the incidence of malignant growths.

Fretters and worriers are more apt to play host to fast-growing cancer. Repressed worry seems to stimulate such growth. It is well known that constant irritation disposes one to this malignant disease, and irritation and nervous tension may be allied.

One day we shall discover the cause and the cure of cancer; we shall also have learned a very great deal about human personality and nature.

Some 3,000 war brides came back with Canadian troops from The Netherlands. Since then, another 50,000 Hollanders have arrived, and 25,000 more may follow them before the year is out. Even before the war, 213,000 Canadians of Netherlands origin formed 1.85 per cent of the population, exceeded in numbers only by Canadians of British Isles, French, German, and Ukrainian ancestry. Now 265,000 Canadians of Netherlands origin constitute 2 per cent of the population, and are still in fifth place as a group.

Waiting Out The Stalemate

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP
from Washington

IN KOREA, the easy way out has proved, as usual, to be a dead end. The great sticking point in the peace negotiations has been the American objection to forcible repatriation of Allied prisoners of war. Until rather recently, however, it had been hoped that only a few of the Communist prisoners in our hands would refuse to go home — 2,500 was the official estimate.

Joseph

The further hope was that some system of jiggery-pokery would conceal or condone the failure to return this small number of prisoners. Instead, when a census was taken in the prison camps, it was found that out of 170,000 prisoners in our hands, no less than 100,000 all but preferred death to repatriation.

There has been a sort of grim irony in this episode. The very fact that should make us jubilant—the enormous proportion of these Communist prisoners who wish to change sides—has instead profoundly upset and depressed our policy makers.

But the irony pales, unfortunately, when compared to the episode's possible implications. In plain terms, governmental leaders here, in Britain and in France are beginning to wonder just how long the present situation in Korea can be kept going. The prisoner problem has proven to be a good deal more than twenty times as big as was thought.

Maybe the U.N. effort to break the Korean deadlock may get somewhere, but it hardly seems likely. It is much more probable that the armies in Korea will continue to confront each other, while at Panmunjom, the negotiators will continue their empty haggling.

Can this situation be indefinitely prolonged? In theory, of course, it can. The morale and training of the American and United Nations' forces are considered excellent. Their equipment is ample. Gen. Matthew Ridgway not long ago invited the enemy to attack, and promised to make him regret it. But if the enemy does not attack, how long can we afford to have the bulk of the American army stranded on this distant peninsula?

By the same token, the Chinese Communists and Korean forces have been able, during the long lull, to build up their forward and intermediate stockpiles and supplies to unprecedented levels, thus making possible a more sustained offensive than they have ever previously put on. The build-up of their air power has continued, although at a more gradual rate. Of their strength there is no doubt. But they have suffered fearfully from plague and other diseases through this winter. And where lies their advantage in prolonging this curious stalemate, with all its inherent risks?

Stewart

It is worth asking these questions to point up what increasingly seems to be the central fact in this Korean situation. The plain truth is that American and Allied policy has not been able to devise any satisfactory answer to any of these questions, which are now so insistent.

The positive courses — withdrawing from Korea, or resuming the offensive with enough power to make the Communists want a peace—are too repellent. Hence the basic questions have never been answered, and we have gone drifting along in the vain hope that the Panmunjom talks would somehow, some day, produce an agreed settlement.

Ups and Downs

By BRIAN TOBIN

"IT MUST have been," said the Elevator Man, "when man began to get civilized that he began to swear. Back in the old days, when the furniture was made of stone and stubbing a bare toe in the dark was a major accident, I don't suppose man made many verbal comments beyond 'ugh!' or 'eeyow!' The outlet for that surge of rage and pain in those days was physical. The victim with the stubbed toe took the stone chair and dashed it to pieces against the stone wall. The fella who mashed a pinky with a stone hammer didn't bother to address the hammer. He probably laid around him with fire in his eye and left nothing standing up in that neighborhood that could be clubbed flat. Those were the days of physical action. The vocal chords hadn't become the important accessories they are now. There was nothing in the way of personal expression a larynx could do that a bicep couldn't do better. Going up!

Tobin

"But then," said the Elevator Man, "the race began to soften up. Instead of bashing things around when he got mad man merely talked about what he would do. When that didn't seem frightening enough he took to calling on greater powers than himself to do it for him. He'd call down the wrath of all his deities on the offending thing or person. Gradually he found that he was shouting the names and the threats with more anger than conviction that anything would happen. He got a relief just from hearing the thunder-making words, just like his forebears used to get when they splintered the furniture. He was swearing. Lower main!

"Of course," said the Elevator Man, "a lot of folks still resort to their biceps when they get mad. It helps to burn up the adrenalin that a battered thumb generates. That way they're throwbacks to the old-timers. But the method is largely outgrown. Now a reverend in Montreal says swearing's a lost art, too. All the magic has gone out of profanity, he claims. It's wasted breath; you might as well 'say something worthwhile.' I guess he's right at that, but it'll be a while yet before we can make the reaction entirely mental. There's something about a thumped thumb that calls for noise."

U.S. to Expand Atomic Arms Plans

United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 30 (UP).—A vast new expansion of atomic arms production will be proposed to Congress in the next week or two, informed sources said today.

President Truman has said the program, designed to swell America's stockpile of "fantastic new weapons," will cost $5,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 in the next five years.

The Atomic Energy Commission and defense department have been putting the program together since January. It will get under way, if Congress approves it, in the fiscal year starting July 1. Heavy expenditures are not expected, however, until fiscal 1954.

The expansion will be the third since Russia exploded her first atomic weapon in September, 1949. It will more than double the production capacity now existing or under construction.

The program as submitted to Congress is not expected to contain complete details of all new plants the A.E.C. plans to build.

AVA SUSPENDED

HONOLULU, April 30 (AP).—Film star Ava Gardner says Metro Goldwyn Mayer has suspended her because she came to Hawaii for a holiday with Frank Sinatra, her crooner husband. She said Tuesday another factor in her suspension was that she had turned down two scripts as "not good enough for me."

U.S. Refineries Idled by Strike

Gas Pipelines Also Affected as 90,000 Quit Jobs Across Nation

DENVER, April 30 (AP)—More than 90,000 unionized refinery and pipeline workers are on strike across the United States today as negotiations with the oil industry continue.

The union demands a 25-cent hourly wage increase and higher night differential pay. The present average wage ranges from $2 to $2.10 an hour.

Government officials report they have no present intention of intervening.

Negotiations in some localities were reported progressing on a note of optimism especially in San Francisco where about 25,000 union-affiliated industry workers were represented in talks—none of them on strike.

The Oil Workers International Union (C.I.O.) in Denver requested 10,000 members in California to remain on the job so as not to hinder operations for the Korean war effort.

Motorists are expected to be hit by a prolonged strike. Long lines of cars were reported at filling stations in Detroit and other cities Tuesday night before the midnight strike deadline.

Some shortages of natural gas are anticipated through the idling of pipeline crews.

The Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co., supplier of natural gas to more than 400 communities in eight states, will cut down on its supply.

A spokesman said supervisory employees would man compressor stations to keep the supply going to Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan.

The East Coast also is in for a shortage of natural gas piped from the Midwest and Southwest.

Cities Service officials said supply to the Chicago area could be affected if its daily intake from Kansas fields is curtailed.

O. A. Knight, president of the O.W.I.U., said slightly less than half the country's production of refined oil products will be cut off.

"Our union is immediately shutting down refineries with a daily production totaling approximately 2,200,000 barrels daily," he said.

"Independent and A.F.L. unions are expected to close refineries with a daily capacity of about 650,000 barrels daily."

Union officials would not disclose exactly how many plants had been closed or their locations.

Texas and Oklahoma appeared among the most heavily-struck states. At least seven Texas Gulf Coast refineries reportedly were out, including refining units of Magnolia Petroleum, Gulf, Texas and Atlantic Oil & Gas companies.

AIR RAID TEST FATAL TO TWO

NEWARK, N.J., April 30 (UP).—Civil defense officials said today that Tuesday's surprise state-wide air raid test was a success, although two persons died of heart attacks.

Of the 4,835,000 citizens involved in the 10-minute alert, only one refused to co-operate. A 53-year-old lawyer who ignored instructions was carried forcibly from the streets and arrested as a disorderly person.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS

VICTORIA'S SUNSHINE RECORD TO DATE, 1952—472.0 HOURS

SYNOPSIS: An intense storm moved rapidly towards the coast Tuesday night and rain from the disturbance fell on an area stretching from California to northern B.C. Gale warnings were issued for all coastal waters and winds up to 60 miles per hour lashed the coast at the height of the storm. The disturbance will move inland today, bringing rain to all Interior points by evening. Showers will follow the passage of the storm but some clearing is expected to take place overnight and Thursday.

Temperatures will remain relatively cool in all districts for the next two days.

REGIONAL FORECASTS VALID UNTIL MIDNIGHT THURSDAY

VICTORIA: Cloudy tonight. Sunny Thursday. Little change in temperature. Winds southwest 20 Thursday. Low tonight and high Thursday, 40 and 54.

WEST COAST: Cloudy with sunny intervals Thursday. Little change in temperature. Winds westerly 15 tonight. Low tonight and high Thursday at Estevan Point, 38 and 55.

VANCOUVER AND GEORGIA STRAIT: Cloudy Thursday clearing in the afternoon. Little change in temperature. Winds light tonight. Light winds elsewhere. Low tonight and high Thursday at Vancouver Airport, 42 and 58; Abbotsford, 40 and 60; Nanaimo, 40 and 55.

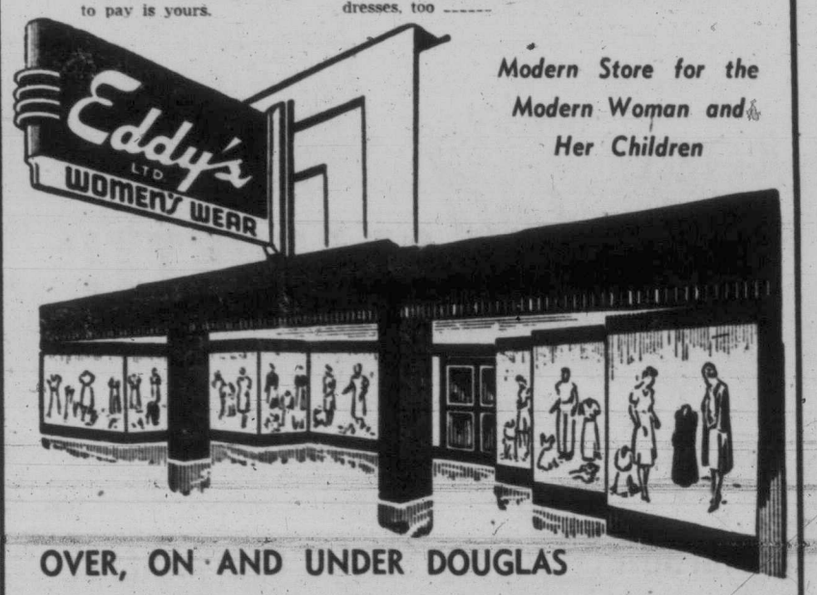
Modern Store for the Modern Woman and Her Children



OVER, ON AND UNDER DOUGLAS

Victoria Firm Proudly Marks 90 Business Years

Celebrating its 90th anniversary this week is the well-known Victoria firm of W. & J. Wilson.

The Wilson clothing store was started when Victoria was a mere collection of tents and log buildings, in 1862.

Over four generations of the Wilson family, the business has thrived as a busy centre in downtown Victoria.

William Wilson, the founder, arrived from England 90 years ago. With his brother, Joseph, he set up a clothing store for early Victorians.

The first Wilson building, made of logs, was located on Government Street opposite the old post office. There was no mail delivery in those days and people called in droves to collect their mail. This meant that much of the daily traffic flowed through the Wilson store.

Over the years, great changes have been made in size and materials in the famous Wilson premises, but the location has always been the same, Government Street at Trounce Alley.

Since 1862 store on same site.

In the early life of the store, travellers from San Francisco on the regular steamer to Victoria were always eager to get something different in fine clothes at Wilson's. Located near the harbor, many arrivals to the city automatically headed there. The same is true today with tourists who want quality clothing and know where to go for it.

TRIBESMEN LOSE APPEAL

African Chief Who Married White Girl Still Exiled

LONDON, April 30 (BUP)—Six Bamangwato tribesmen from Africa have lost their appeal for the return of their chief, Seretse Khama, to Bechuanaland.

The British government Tuesday gave a final rejection to the request and the Bamangwato group immediately accused the government of "racial descrimination."

The former Labor government refused to let Seretse return as chief after the 30-year-old Oxford-educated leader married a white woman in London and the Conservative government has made the ban permanent.

ISLAND DIGEST

DUNCAN, April 29.—Chamber of Commerce held nominations, Monday night, for officers and councillors of the chamber, and will accept further nominations from the floor at a meeting May 13.

Nominations were: president, C. R. Porter; secretary-treasurer, G. P. Macmillan; councillors, F. G. Aldersey, E. B. Evans, N. H. Gourlay, H. Low, W. Dobson, P. H. Dunne, A. J. Williams, R. Cawley, E. Laver, H. Marsh, and Hugh Linnell.

NANAIMO, April 30.—Frank and Thomasina MacGibbon may collect damages for losses suffered when mink on their Parksville fur farm were disturbed by nearby dynamite explosions for land clearing purposes.

Mr. Justice A. M. Manson, who heard the MacGibbons' suit against Frank J. Robinson, farmer, in Supreme Court, indicated he would probably rule for the plaintiffs, but is awaiting written argument from counsels for both parties.

The suit was for $3,000, including $620 special damage for loss of mink. According to the plaintiffs the mink were panicked by the blasts and destroyed their young, while surviving animals deteriorated in value.

GANGES, April 30.—Residents of Duncan, Nanaimo, Crofton and Saltspring Island will meet in Crofton shortly to discuss establishment of a Vesuvius-Crofton ferry.

Desmond Crofton, president of Saltspring Island Chamber of Commerce, will lead the island delegation.

NANAIMO, April 30—Clarence Lidberg, Courtenay, who pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while his ability was impaired by alcohol, was fined $150 in police court this week by Magistrate Lionel Beevor-Potts.

The charge arose Saturday night when Lidberg almost collided with Const. W. R. Morrison on the highway between Parksville and Qualicum. Const. Morrison radioed back to a second police car driver, six miles behind him, who made the arrest.

Provincial land registrar has ruled that a subdivision in Central Saanich, approved by Saanich prior to secession in 1951, does not need approval of the new municipality.

Application for subdiviison was made by A. L. Noakes for property on Mount Newton Cross Road.

Central Saanich will accept the decision, although Reeve Sydney Pickles claimed it was a "miscarriage of justice" that the municipality could be deprived of its privileges.

Contractors Stand Pat on Carpenter Pay

Vote to Abide by 15c-an-Hour Offer

Eighteen local contractors belonging to the Victoria Building Industries' Exchange at a meeting Tuesday afternoon voted to stand by their 15-cent-an-hour offer to the 450 carpenters in their employ.

Such a raise, which would bring the hourly rate for carpenters to $1.90, was recommended in a minority board report handed down earlier in the week. The majority report, which the union is expected to approve next Monday, recommends a 35-cent-an-hour raise.

If the union, which originally asked for a $2.50 hourly rate, decides to press for the $2.10 rate recommended, it will likely apply for a government supervised strike vote.

In view of the union's stand, further negotiations at this time would likely be regarded by the union as a waste of time.

ALBERNI, April 30—Linking of the city's water system with that of Port Alberni as a fire protection measure failed to pass the city council. It was to have cost $1,200.

It had been an objective of Mayor Ben Wright, but was opposed by Ald. James Trebett who said advantages to be gained did not warrant the expense.

15TH BRIGADE VETERANS PLAN TO MARK 36TH ANNIVERSARY

Members of the 15th Brigade, C.F.A. Association, intend to celebrate the 36th anniversary of their departure for overseas, May 28, 1916.

Ted King, president of the association, announced today a meeting would be held next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the office of Gordon A. Cameron, Union Building, at which arrangements would be made for the celebration. All members are asked to attend.

Ex-artillerymen are expected from Salt Spring Island, Duncan, Nanaimo and the Mainland. Although time has reduced their numbers somewhat it is expected that nearly 100 will muster for the rum ration when the re-union is held.

Clubmen Back New Quimper Play Place

A playground may be constructed this year on Quimper Street, near the Chinese cemetery, with the co-operation of Kiwanis Club officials, A. S. G. Musgrave, Oak Bay municipal engineer announced today.

Mr. Musgrave said Oak Bay Kiwanis Club has also been leveling and clearing Willows Beach for public use during the summer.

Tyees Warm Chilled Fans In Successful Home Debut

3,000 Fans Brave Elements As Lorino Edges Chiefs

Victoria 7, Wenatchee 6

By BILL WALKER

Someone forgot to check the bung hole when they pried the lid off the home Western International League baseball opener at Athletic Park Tuesday night.

And in between the raindrops, driven cruelly by a 40-mile wind, Victoria Tyees put on a heart-warming but body-chilling debut for 3,000 shivering fans, bunching nine hits effectively for a 7-6 triumph over Wenatchee Chiefs.

It was southpaw Ben Lorino's first victory of the year and the Tyees' sixth in seven outings, though the steady downpour dampened the ardor of many and sent most home singing "In the Good Old Summertime."

"They played and we won" could best describe opening night as the Tyees spotted Wenatchee a two-run lead in the first inning, erupted for a 5-2 bulge in the fourth and then outslithered the Chiefs through the latter innings, Lorino nipping a dangerous threat in the ninth with the tying and winning runs on base.

Playing manager Dick Adams of the Chiefs slapped a two-run double off the left centrefield wall in the first inning to score Ross McCormack and Bud Hjelmaa, who had walked, and the Chiefs led 2-0.

Garriott Scores First Run

Held hitless by Chief rookie Bud Bauhofer until the fourth, the Tyees didn't exactly explode, but they made five hits, two bases on balls and a hit batter stand up for five runs as the fans got their first chance to warm their frozen fingers.

Garriott, made "Chief Big Shot" in a pregame ceremony, started it by drawing a walk. Don Pries singled, his first of three hits. Chuck Abernathy singled, and Garriott fittingly scored the first run as Granny Gladstone flied out. John Treece walked and Milt Martin, Lorino and Luther Branham singled in succession, Lorino's single scoring two runs to aid his own cause.

With the green light blinking at third on every blow, Tyees negotiated the greasy turn in a hustling, gambling display that didn't end until Garriott grounded out to end the frame, 10 Tyees going to the plate.

The Chiefs bounced back in the top of the sixth as Elwin Elton followed successive doubles by Adams, his second, and Walt Pocekay with a two-run single to slice the margin to 5-4.

Milt Martin started the Tyees on their way to getting that pair back in a hurry in the bottom of the inning by leading off with a single. A sacrifice by Lorino, a fielder's choice, and a wild throw to second by Bauhofer which allowed two runs to score restored the three-run edge and the Tyees led 7-4.

Lorino Weathers the Storm

Hjelmaa's terrific double off the leftfield fence gave the Chiefs renewed hope in the eighth and when Adams drew a base on balls and Elton connected for his second two-run double, Garriott called time and spoke with Lorino.

But Ben weathered the storm—the one from the Chiefs, though it carried over to a tense ninth inning.

A walk to Ben Guerrero and another to Bill Cleveland followed by a fielder's choice left the two Chiefs with the morale-breaking runs in position to score.

Hjelma's game-ending pop-up to Gladstone was the signal for a heartfelt roar of appreciation.

First—because the Tyees had won.

Second—because it was all over, the coldest, wettest and most miserable opening night for fans and players alike in the city's W.I.L. history.

Some even vowed that they'd take weatherman Bill Mackie's forecast of "an overcast sky with the little possibility of rain" with a grain of salt in future, or failing that investigate the possibilities of canned heat.

Pries Gets Three for Four

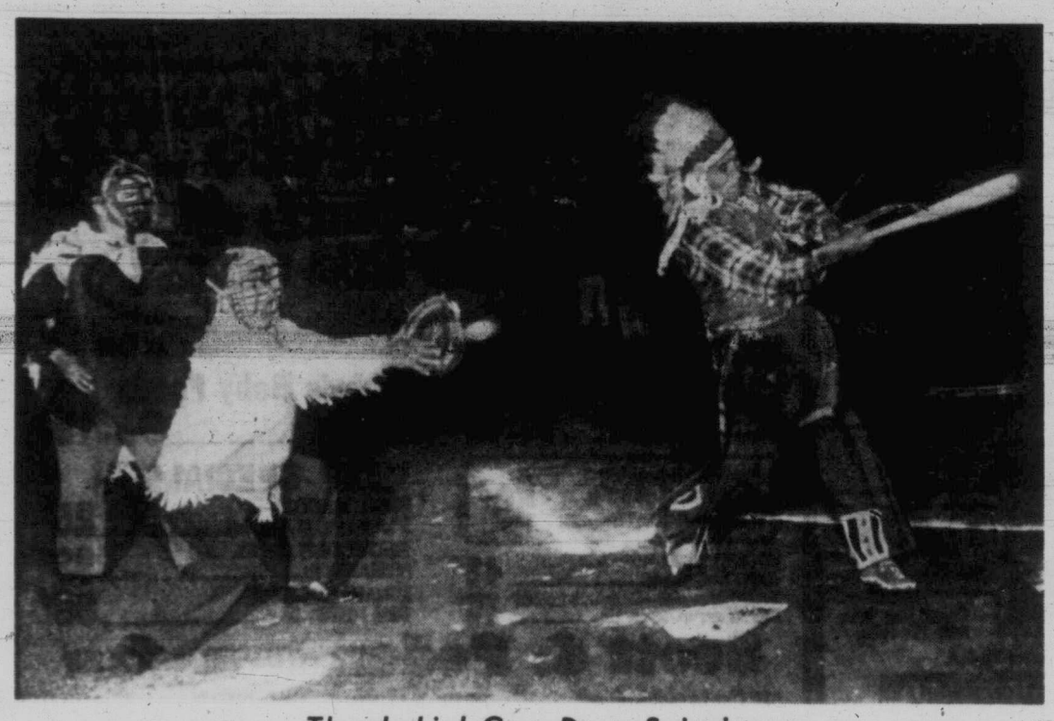
Lorino, who fielded brilliantly, walked nine and struck out seven in the slippery setting, while Pries with three for four Galdstone with a pair of singles, and Martin, who appears set to give Lilio Marcucci a battle for singles, sparked the attack.

Elton punched in four of the Chiefs' runs, Adams two. Each had two doubles.

Mr. Mackie willing, the Chiefs and Tyees will go at it again tonight with Bill Wisneski, the 21-year-old righthanded rookie, Garriott's mound choice. Wisneski hurled an eight-inning two-hitter in his last out.

DIAMOND DIRT — Every decision went against Wenatchee Tuesday night as manager Dick Adams protested in vain most of the evening . . . pinch hitter Norm Ridgeway's smash off Don Pries' glove in the seventh inning, which was called foul, drew the most ire . . . It was close . . . John Treece got his first taste of the tricks of the wind in right field on Walt Pocekay's double as the gale blew the ball about 40 feet out of its natural course . . . New umpire Russ Kimpel comes to the W.I.L. with seven years' experience and from the Western League . . . lights were popping like a popcorn machine through the game while loose wires giving off intermittent flashes of blue light kept the press box crew on edge . . .

Pries got the biggest hand after Garriott, in the pre-game intro with Jim Propst a close third . . . Chief Thunderbird didn't wrestle anybody but his headdress when it blew down over his eyes as he was making his induction speech to Garriott . . . Then maybe it was the beating of the Indian Chiefs' tom-toms before the game that caused the rain . . . but the show went on as scheduled . . . The Tyees—they'll run and did in that big fourth inning . . . tonight, minus the fanfare, they shoot for No. seven in eight tries and it is to be hoped with some of Saskatoon's hockey weather of 82 degrees . . . Jupiter, you're all mixed up in your seasons . . .



Thunderbird Goes Down Swinging

Chief Thunderbird may be one of the greatest all-time wrestlers in Canada but to Percy Ross he's just another banjo hitter. To officially open the 1952 home baseball season, Ross went to the mound; Mike Underwood, of the Cowichan tribe, caught and Abraham Joe, of Cowichan, umpired with Thunderbird batting. Ross, who used to make a living pitching, breezed a fast ball past the Chief for a swinging strike. This quartet named Cec Garriott, "Chief Big Shot" in a pregame ceremony.

Debentures, Pledges To Pay for New Rink

Estimated Cost Is $125,000

One of the spunkiest money-raising plans in this city's history will take place in the near future when the Victoria Figure Skating Club sets out to raise $125,000 for the construction of a private rink for their own use.

The chief means of raising the money will be by canvassing the club's 740 members for pledges and by reaction to sale of debentures.

A $100 fee will be charged for life membership in the club and sale of debentures will be undertaken after the membership canvass.

Cost estimates released by the club are $57,000 for the building; $35,000 for the ice, which will measure 176 feet by 76 feet, and $34,000 for the lounge and furnace rooms, etc.

ASSISTANCE OFFERED

Max Zabel, president of the Victoria Curling Club, announced that his organization would offer financial aid to the figure-skaters' project.

Zabel stated that part of the land on which the new curling rink is being built could be used for the figure skaters.

This would also allow for adjoining buildings, a share-basis for ice machinery, or use of the curling club ice for a limited time if the skaters do not build their club immediately.

A great saving could be made by both clubs if ice machinery was shared. For instance, two compressors are needed for each sheet of ice, one to make ice and the other to "hold" it. If the two buildings were joined, only three compressors would be necessary, otherwise, four would be needed for separate buildings.

It is impossible to use one sheet of ice for both clubs, because skating ice and curling ice are of a different hardness.

IMMEDIATE NEED

Ross "Bud" Hocking, president of the Victoria Figure Skating Club, stated the club must have $75,000 before construction can be started.

Besides member donations, Hocking added that service clubs, fraternal and labor organizations would be asked to contribute towards the club's proposed new home.

DODGERS ESCAPE INJURY

ST. LOUIS, April 30 (AP).—Twenty members of Brooklyn Dodgers escaped injury Monday night but two other persons were hurt seriously when the ball club's bus and two automobiles collided.

SECOND OF MONTREAL'S THREE MUSKETEERS DIES

MONTREAL, April 30 (CP).—H. A. (Louie) Letourneau, one of the "three musketeers" of Montreal sport, died Tuesday at his home here. He was 84.

Under the guidance of Letourneau, Leo Dandurand and the late Joe Cattarinich, the two other "musketeers," Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League, bought for $11,000, became one of the most colorful teams in history.

Letourneau came to Montreal from St. Roch, Que., and entered the fish market business, later joining Dandurand and Cattarinich in race-track promotion early in the 20's.

He was the business man of the partnership, leaving showmanship and club operation to his partners. Self-effacing, he referred to himself as the "least of the three musketeers."

Eagles Once More City's Amateur Ball Orphans

Once again they face the unpleasant task of being the only senior baseball team in the city but Eagles are already going about rebuilding the powerful squad that won 13 out of 17 exhibition games last season.

Inability to gain entry to the strong Mid-Island League and failure of the navy to field a team as had been hoped leaves the Eagles baseball orphans and presents them with the problem of arranging exhibition games all season.

When the Senior Amateur League and the Victoria Minor Baseball Association amalgamated this year to form the Victoria Amateur Baseball League, Eagles, who were sponsored by that club last year—although they may bear a new name this year—and Navy filed entry in the senior bracket.

SAILORS OUT

However, since that time player shortage and drafts have forced Navy to abandon such plans. This means that Eagles' closest competition will be from up-Island teams if exhibition games can be arranged.

Mike Leachman is returning as manager and he has enlisted the aid of Doug Peden as coach. It is likely that Peden will play first base with the team.

Most of last year's players have returned. Some have yet to get out of school and a crowd of hustling newcomers are jostling for positions on the club.

ROOKIE CANDIDATES

Working out behind the plate are Al Kubasek, who caught two games for the Victoria Athletics last year; Kit Carson, from last year's team; Jack Shields from Vic High, and George Savory, up from the minor leagues.

Besides Peden, candidates for first base are Ken Wright, who held the job last year, and Ab Weibe, well-known hockey and softball star.

At second base the leading candidate is fancy fielding Verne Evans, and at third it is Rookie Wright who is heavy on experience at the hot corner. Other infielders are Elmer Curtis, well known in senior basketball circles; Mel Sillars and Roger Ross is expected to turn out when he returns from dental school in Oregon.

Three outfielders appear to have the positions sewed up with Ken Higgs, Canadian football star in left; veteran Ed Shepherd in centre and soccer star Den McGee in right.

The pitching staff is gilt edged and thereby hangs the real strength of the club.

PRIOR TOPS STAFF

Heading the powerful staff is right-hander Bill Prior who mixes his blazing fast ball with a jug handle curve. Prior has pitched with Victoria Athletics of the W.I.L.

Stan Davies, veteran curve baller, is the number two right-hander on the staff.

Two other starboard flingers who could win a lot of games are husky Cliff Hume, if he can master control, and Norm Forbes, presently away at college.

Don McKinnon, a left-hander with a wide assortment of soft stuff, with a slider as his specialty, will join the team as soon as he returns from teachers' school.

Bill Garner, a talented left-hander who learned a great deal about pitching style while working out with the A's last year, shows great promise.

PORTLAND, Me.—Bob Stetcher, 166½, Portland, Me., outpointed Enrico Domingues, 164, New York, 10.

Novelty Acts On Swim Card

Two new aqua novelty numbers will be introduced to Victoria swimming fans Saturday when Buzz Fairburn and Jim McKellar of Aberdeen bring the Aberdeen Swim Club here to compete against Archie McKinnon's Y.M.C.A. squad.

The novelty acts will be put on in addition to the 22 regular events.

First attraction is a folk dance in water put on by a mixed group and the second event will be a comedy canoe number.

The swimming races will be held in the age groups of 16 and under, 12 and under and 10 and under.

The Aberdeen club is reported to be bringing 25 swimmers, consisting of 20 boys and five girls.

Victoria's entry will be built around such names as Robin Clark, Bob Good, Wally Watson, Warren Williams, Merlin and Roland Hawes, Bob Brown, Gerry Cuthbert, Doug Dickie and Don Heywood.

The gala will be held at the Crystal Garden from 7.30 to 9.

Uplands Mixed Foursome Thursday

The Uplands Golf Club will hold its first twilight mixed foursomes of the season Thursday at 5.30.

The competition will be 12 holes of medal play with participants starting from the first and sixth tees.

Draw and starting times follow:

5.30—First tee, Mrs. Horsford and R. Elliott vs. Mrs. Silburn and Ed Mallek; sixth tee, Mrs. Hope and Frank Jeffrey vs. Mrs. Humber and Hugh Francis.

5.37—First tee, Mrs. Ross and Glenn Hope vs. Mrs. Elliott and Barley Humber; sixth tee, Mrs. Kempston and C. J. Robertson vs. Mrs. Woolison and J. F. Jeffrey.

5.42—First tee, Mrs. Herbert and J. W. Kempston vs. Mrs. Mallek and B. Porritt; sixth tee, Mrs. Robertson and Art Baker vs. Miss Hill and Don Ross.

5.49—First tee, Mrs. Goatcher and Sam Hill vs. Miss Platt and R. Stranix.

Tri-City Downs Spokane

Rain and cold weather canceled one Western International League baseball game Tuesday night but two marathons in the other contests played almost made up for it.

The games opened the season at home for Salem, Victoria and Tri-City and only Salem disappointed the first night crowd. The Senators forced Lewiston to 12 innings before bowing 11-8.

Tri-City won its first home opener in three years in the W.I.L. by downing Spokane, 11-5, in a nine-inning scorer's nightmare.

Weather idled Vancouver and Yakima.

Tri-City and Spokane together called on five pitchers before the last man was out at Kennewick. The scorer recorded a total of 28 bases on balls, believed a league record, 18 hits, 16 runs and 30 men left on bases. There also were five doubles hit in the game and four twin-killings.

At Salem, the Senators tied the game 8-8 in the last of the ninth on Glen Tuckett's single followed by Artie Wilson's double to win the game.

HOOP BODY ESTABLISHES PRECEDENT FOR OLYMPICS

TORONTO, April 30 (BUP)—Amateur sports strict, Simon-pure rules were relaxed today so a professional footballer can play basketball for Canada in the 1952 Olympic Games.

Playing coach Paul Thomas said president Don Paul, of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association, had cleared top-rated basketball player Bob Simpson for entry in the Olympics.

Simpson is a pro footballer with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Big Four Football Union.

Stan Mockford, C.A.B.A. secretary for eastern Canada, said amateur rules say that a professional in one sport is not necessarily a pro in another. It had been feared that Simpson would be unable to play in the Olympics because of his football connection.

FLAT SEASON OPENS

Thunderhead 11 Takes Guineas

NEWMARKET, Cambridge, Eng., April 30 (Reuters)—Thunderhead II, an unfashionably-bred, French-owned three-year-old, today ran away with the Two Thousand Guineas, the first of Britain's flat-racing classics.

King's Bench, which finished second five lengths behind, was the only English horse to get in the first three. Argur, another French-owned horse, was third—one-half length in the rear.

The highly-touted Agitator and Bob Major, whom English fans had counted on to make it a two-horse race, ran nowhere.

Odds against Thunderhead were 100 to 7. King's Bench was 22 to 1 and Argur 8 to 1. The victory was worth $40,000 to Thunderhead's owner, Eugene Constant. Second place was worth $4,710 and third $2,355. Twenty-six horses ran.

The race was run over the straight mile at this historic headquarters of English racing.

Ridd Chosen For Olympics

THLLSONBURG, Ont., April 30 (CP).—Carl Ridd, who averaged 27 points a game with Winnipeg Varsity Grads this season, will join Tillsonburg Livingstons when they make their bid to be Canada's representative in the Olympic basketball games, coach Paul Thomas announced.

Ridd was selected to replace Tommy Gibbons, an American import who is ineligible for Olympic competition.

Livingstons will play several exhibition games before they meet the survivors of a University of Western Ontario-University of Alberta series. It will be a best-of-five series May 19-23

Horth, Atcheson Pacing Scattergun Marksmen

Lou Horth of Sidney and Victoria's Clarke Atchison are leading the race in the Victoria Gun Club's trap and skeet season-long trophy program.

Horth knocked off 48 of 50 clays to win the Colonist Cup leg on the traps. Atchison registered 21x24 in the trap doubles to take the first leg of the C. & C. Doubles Trophy.

Remainder of the schedule for the year at the Victoria Gun Club grounds, Albert Head Road:

May 4, open shoot; May 18, Humber Cup, C.I.L. Shield; June 1, open shoot; June 22, Colonist and C. & C. Doubles Trophies; July 4, open practice shoot.

July 5, V.I. skeet championship; July 6, B.C. trap championship; July 27, Humber and C.I.L.; Aug. 10, Colonist and C. & C. doubles; Aug. 24, Humber and C.I.L.; Sept. 7, open shoot and shootoff for all trophy ties; Oct. 5, open shoot; Dec. 14, mammoth open Christmas shoot.

IS THIS THE NEW GASHOUSE GANG?

It's Run, Don't Walk for Garriott

By DENNY BOYD

Well, Tyee manager Cec Garriott said he wanted a running ball club and the way the Tyees scampered around the bases in Tuesday's home opener against Wenatchee Chiefs would do credit to the old St. Louis Cardinals of Pepper Martin's days.

It was straight running, not hitting that gave Tyees five runs in the fourth inning on two walks and five of the skimpiest base hits you ever saw. As Jim Propst said following the game, "You put those five hits together and they wouldn't make one good line drive."

Propst also claimed he picked up a sore arm just waving runners in from third base.

Principles of the impressive ceremony that saw Garriott made an Indian chief to the accompaniment of authentic Indian music were Percy Ross, Songhee chief, Chief Thunderbird, Mike Underwood and Abraham Joe, both of the Cowichan tribe.

Chief Thunderbird never wrestled anything quite as tough as that ceremonial headdress that enveloped his head, face, neck and shoulders every time he turned broadside to the wind in the pre-game ceremony that saw Garriott invested as an honorary chief with the title Chief Big Shot.

Garriott was presented with a totem pole and every player was given a totem pole pencil after making the proper salutation to the new chief.

It was so windy that even Laurie Wallace had his hair blowing in his eyes. The popular treasurer of the Victoria Baseball & Athletic Co., Ltd., also received a stern lecture in the press box for mentioning that Tyee pitcher Ben Lorino was working on a one-hitter. The next batter promptly teed off on one of Lorino's pitches much to Wallace's embarrassment.

The press box didn't fly off the roof but for a while it was touch and go. Then there was that live wire that was spitting sparks all night.

Lorino was one of the fielding stars of the game as he made three great throws to catch runners on bunts and badly-hit balls.

Said Propst when he first saw pictures of the starting battery on the front page of Tuesday's late edition of The Times, "Man, I've pitched 199 games and I never got my picture on the front page. This game must be getting popular."

Said catcher John Wilburn on the Tyee's running, "We've all run 30 miles in the last few days."

Said pitcher Cal McIrvin, who reported to the club Tuesday afternoon, "I like this ball club—they get runs. They make a pitcher feel comfortable."

Nicest play of the night was Wenatchee left fielder Elwin Elton's sliding catch of Chuck Abernathy's sinking liner. Or was it the "tag" Lu Branham put on Vic Solari in a steal play in the sixth.

Don Pries took quite a riding in the dressing-room about the two singles he hit to left field. Famed for punching his shots to right field, Pries merely explained that he has found his power.

Even some of the players were pleasantly surprised that the greater majority of fans stuck it out right to the end in spite of the howling wind and rain.

Third baseman — outfielder John Treece was an unhappy boy in the dressing-room. He was kicking himself for getting tangled up with a fly ball in right field, the ball falling in for two bases.

Simmons Returns to Give Phils New Hope

Tames Cubs, Baumholtz In First Start

Cold and rain continued to paralyze baseball in the east and a strike threatened to black out a park in the west but followers of Philadelphia Phillies could find no gloom anywhere today—Curt Simmons is back and he's in the groove.

The hard-throwing, 22-year-old left-hander, three weeks out of the army, made his first major league start in 19 months Tuesday and proceeded to tame Chicago Cubs with a smooth seven-hit performance, 8-2.

He didn't look any different from the trim, young southpaw whose blazing fast ball won 17 games for the Phillies and helped lead them to the National League pennant before Uncle Sam snatched him up in September, 1950.

Simmons' effectiveness was emphasized by the job he did on Frankie Baumholtz, the Cubs' right fielder who had hit in 11 straight games and had carried a .422 percentage, the National League's highest, into the game.

Baumholtz didn't get a smell of the ball in four times at bat. "He had plenty of swift, for my money," said the hard-hitting Chicago flychaser.

In the season's first head-on collision of east and west, the favored Brooklyn Dodgers strengthened their grip on the National League lead by turning back the St. Louis Cardinals on the masterful clutch pitching of Preacher Roe, 4-1.

BARTENDERS' STRIKE

The game was delayed 65 minutes by a strike of A.F.L. bartenders who threw a picket line around St. Louis' Sportsman's Park. Union electricians refused to cross the line to go in and turn on the lights.

So 20,384 fans sat in darkness until Fred Saigh, Cardinal owner, could persuade the bartenders, who work in the park's concessions to pull off their pickets.

The Dodgers thus increased their lead to a game and a half over both Chicago and the Cincinnati Reds, who fell victim to the New York Giants at Cincinnati, 2-1.

Sal Maglie, a 23-game winner for the senior league champions in 1951, limited the Reds to three hits in edging Cincinnati's gangling Ewell Blackwell.

In the other National League game Warren Spahn, the Boston Braves' crack lefty, nailed Pittsburgh tighter to the cellar by humbling the Pirates, 5-1, on five hits. It was the tenth loss in a row for the hapless Bucs.

Only one game was played in the American League as unseasonable cold and wet grounds which already have cost eastern clubs more than a quarter of a million dollars, forced three more postponements.

The single American League conflict was at Philadelphia and the Athletics and Cleveland Indians must have felt obligated to put in a few licks for their idle contemporaries.

The Indians won, 21-9, in a wild slugfest that saw the two teams pound out a total of 43 hits, 25 of them by the Indians. The American League record for two teams is 45, set by Philadelphia and Boston in 1902.

BASKETBALL DUMPERS PUT ON INDEFINITE PROBATION

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—Judge Saul Streit Tuesday dealt suspended sentences to three former University of Kentucky basketball stars for shaving points in a game.

The players, Olympian Alex Groza and Ralph Beard, and Dale Barnstable, members of the University's "fabulous five" of 1948, were placed on "indefinite probation."

They were given light sentences at the request of the District Attorney's office. The District Attorney had recommended clemency because "of substantial aid to our office."

They had pleaded guilty to fixing the point spread in a national invitation game with Loyola, of Chicago, in Madison Square Garden, March 14, 1949. Loyola won 67-56, in a sensational upset. Coach Adolph Rupp's talented crew had been favored to sweep the tournament.

Fletcher Blanks Seals As Padres Add to Lead

Grumpy Guy Fletcher, the 42-year-old right hander who has been cut adrift by three Pacific Coast League clubs in recent years, is demonstrating that he's still one of the canniest chuckers in the loop.

He whiffed 10 batters Tuesday night in hurling the league-leading San Diego Padres to a 4-0 win over San Francisco.

The victory made him the only twirler besides Seattle's Charley Schanz to win four games this season and hoisted his strikeout mark to 34, second only to the 36 posted by Elmer Singleton of San Francisco.

Sacramento has Hollywood catcher Mike Sandlock to thank for its 8-5 win. One of the circuit's finest backstops, he tossed a wild one while trying for a double play at first base, allowing the Solons to score three runs in the eighth inning.

At Oakland, right hander Al Gettel survived a wild, bases-loaded, none-out ninth inning as the Acorns beat Portland Beavers 5-2.

Seattle spoiled Los Angeles' homecoming when Clarence Maddern's long fly in the tenth scored Pete Pavlick, ending the overtimer 2-1.

Tag Team Matches Top Mat Card

For the second straight week, promoter Nick Harris is presenting an all-local bill on his Friday night wrestling card at the Victoria Ballroom.

He stated that he will continue using both local and Vancouver matmen in his future bouts.

Harris has scheduled two tag-team matches for his four-bout card.

On the main event, Chief Thunderbird and Ken Williamson will take on Benny Laughren and Harris, while Dave Pye and Lionel Speller will match holds in the semi-main event.

In the special event, Tyke Myren and Dick Watson will match holds with Roy Speller and Bing Quon.

As a special attraction, in the opening bout, a display of judo will be shown. First bout starts at 8.30.

Horseshoe Pitchers Issue Invite

The warm weather isn't here, but it is bound to come sooner or later. This brings up the question presented by the Greater Victoria Horseshoe Pitchers' Association: What do you do with your summer evenings?

If the reader can't answer that immediately, the ring-tossers would like him to have a look at the improved club greens on Opal Street Sunday morning at 10.

The greens have been refurbished and new concrete platforms installed to make the whole thing more attractive to the person who has never tried the sport. To enjoy proficiency more quickly, qualified instructors will be on hand to teach those fundamentals that only an expert can divulge.

There are nine separate cups in the offing for summer competitions and they want newcomers to take a crack at any one or all of them.

They'll be looking for novices Sunday.

Swim Meet Here May 24

Swimmers from major centres on the west coast will gather in Victoria, May 24, for the annual British Columbia swimming championships, sponsored this year by the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club.

Swimmers in action at the meeting will be mainly those participating in the Olympic trials. There will be 14 events and the meet will be held at the Crystal Garden in the afternoon.

Largest contingent to swim here will be from the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club. Vancouver coach Percy Norman has stated that over 40 of his top "fish" would be vieing for honors.

Another large group is expected from the Crescent Beach Swim Club under the direction of Noel Oxenbury Morrow.

KENTUCKY DERBY CHOICE

Arcaro on Hill Gail

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30 (AP). — The 78th Kentucky Derby looked very much like some derbies of other years today with the combination of a Calumet-owned horse, trainer Ben Jones and jockey Eddie Arcaro playing the familiar favorite's role.

The combine looked like the best bet in the $100,000 added run around Churchill Downs at 5.30 p.m., E.D.T., Saturday, when Hill Gail took wings Tuesday and fairly flew over a mile to smash the track record in the derby trial.

With Arcaro merely flicking his whip in Hill Gail's face, the big son of Bull Lea reeled off the mile in 1.36 3-5 to clip one-fifth of a second off the track standard and leave eight other derby eligibles far up the track.

The closest, Mrs. Gordon Gulberson's California-owned Arroz was five lengths back. And some 42 lengths back came Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Temperamental Cousin—blowing his last chance to prove his right to be in the derby post parade.

As a result of the prep, the odds on Hill Gail dropped to 8-5 today and he may go to the post at even shorter odds.

Four times in the last 11 years the devil-red silks of Calumet Farm have been carried home first in America's most famous horse race. They were Whirlaway (1941), Pensive 1944), Citation (1948) and Ponder (1949).

And each time the winner was saddled by Jones, who also chalked up his fifth with Lawrin in 1938, that's a record for trainers.

Twice Arcaro has been up on a Calumet winner (Citation and Whirlaway) and to these two he adds Lawrin and Hoop Jr. 1945) for a mark never matched by a jockey. The combination of Jones and Arcaro has never been beaten in a Kentucky Derby.

Despite all this preponderance of facts that makes Hill Gail the apparent standout, there was no indication today the other owners plan to fold their tents and steal away.

BRAZIL PLANE CARRYING 50 STILL SOUGHT

Sister of Canadian Official Among Lost

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 30 (CP)—Search planes today combed the dense, unexplored jungles of Brazil and its desert-like plateau for a giant Pan-American stratocruiser, the last word in modern air travel, which disappeared with 50 persons aboard.

Among the 41 passengers were the sister of a Canadian government official and the president of the Willys-Overland Auto Export Company of Canada Ltd. Another passenger was a German citizen living in Montreal.

The passenger list included several United States and Latin American officials and business men. Ten passengers and the crew of nine were Americans.

One search plane droned through the night over the wilderness between Rio de Janeiro and Belem, hoping to spot a light or a fire if anyone survived in the thinly-populated wilds where the plane was believed down.

Many more searchers, after giving up the hunt at dark, returned to the air at dawn.

The double-decked Boeing stratocruiser, a peacetime development from the B-29 superfortress, was the first plane of its kind to be reported missing. It is powered by four 2,800-horsepower engines.

The plane had flown from Buenos Aires, Argentina, to Rio de Janeiro on the first leg of its flight to the United States. It took off shortly after dark Monday night for Port of Spain, Trinidad, its only other scheduled stop before reaching New York.

It was due at Port of Spain at 10 a.m. E.D.T. (7 a.m., P.D.T.) Tuesday, and carried enough fuel to stay in the air four hours beyond its scheduled flying time for the 2,600-mile trip to Trinidad

Mrs. Lucy Geils Wood, 37, formerly of Montreal, and her husband, John Vincent Wood, 47, a British engineer, were among the missing. Mrs. Wood is the sister of Edmond Joly de Lotbiniere of the Canadian External Affairs Department's information division.

The Woods were en route to Canada from Buenos Aires for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Wood, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. de Lotbiniere of Pointe Platon, Que., was born and educated in Montreal and was married in London, England.

The auto official was Marcel Francois DeMueller, 50, Toledo, O., president and general manager of Willys-Overland Export Corp., and president of Willys-Overland Export Corp. of Canada.

The German resident of Montreal was Dagmar Seelig, 24, who embarked at Buenos Aires for New York.

Mother of Eleven Traffic Victim

SPOKANE, Wash., April 30 (AP).—A mother of 11 children was killed Tuesday in a two-car traffic accident at an intersection here. She was Mrs. Arthur Murphy, 47.

Police said Mrs. Murphy was thrown out of her automobile and was dragged 50 feet underneath the second car involved. Her car overturned and bystanders had to lift it to free her husband, 48. He suffered internal injuries.

Mrs. Murphy died minutes after arriving at a hospital. One of her daughters, ironically, was on duty as a nurse at the time.

Oak Bay Play Season From July 2 to Aug. 1

Oak Bay playground season at Windsor, Willows and Lafayette Parks will run from July 2 to August 1.

Supervised activities will be woodworking, handcrafts, swimming, tennis, tumbling, folk dancing, shell craft, conducted tours and several others.

Plans were made at the annual meeting of the playground committee at Oak Bay Municipal Hall, Tuesday night, when E. Greville-Jones was re-elected chairman.

Others elected were J. J. Wilkinson, vice-chairman; Bruce Macmurchie, treasurer, and Mrs. Margaret Grant, secretary. Named to the committee were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hamlet, Mrs. Joe Ford, Mrs. T. W. McConnell Davis, Mrs. D. G. Ingham, Geoffrey Colbert, Mrs. Allan Daysmith, Mrs. R. C. Miller, Mrs. Charles James, Mrs. C. W. Ivings, Mrs. J. R. Archer and Mrs. D. E. Pite.

HISTORIC BASTION

Lower Fort Garry, built by the Hudson's Bay Company on the Red River in 1831-33, was surronded by a massive stone wall.

The Drum Major's Baton presented to H.M.C.S. Ontario by the Province of Ontario.

The terrestrial globe is supported by a wreath of oak leaves, and surmounted by a coronet of naval crowns, hand-chased and engraved in sterling silver. The grizzly bear at the top is from the Province of Ontario's coat of arms. The ship's crest is in high relief on both sides of the staff.

FOUR CANADIAN FILMS RECEIVE HIGHEST AWARD

NEW YORK, April 30 (CP).—Four Canadian films today received top awards in the annual competition sponsored by a national magazine (Scholastic Teacher) for high school teachers and administrators.

Picked as outstanding in the 16-mm. educational film section were "Ages and Stages," produced by Crawley Films for the National Film Board of Canada, and "Breakdown," produced by the N.F.B. About 325 films were entered in this class.

Among the top 10 awards to filmstrips for high school studies and English were "Masks of North American Indians" and "Simplified Staging," both produced by the N.F.B. Some 175 films were eligible.

Strong, Armed Reinforcements Of Police Moving Into Capetown

CAPETOWN, April 30 (Reuters).—Squads of police in civilian clothes, several carrying rifles wrapped in blankets, have arrived quietly in Capetown during the last three days to reinforce the local police.

Efforts by members of Parliament and reporters to get the government or police chief to say why they are here have failed.

The latest contingent arrived by train Tuesday—on the eve of another debate in Parliament on the government's controversial bill to make supreme constitutional court of the land. The bill passed its first stage last week despite opposition attempts to kill it.

Besides the first-class row this legislation has raised, there have been rumors that the non-European population is planning a new phase in the passive resistance campaign against racial segregation for the end of the month.

All 40 police who entered Capetown today were in civilian clothes. Some had their rifles hidden in blankets and others had them sheathed in rifle covers. A few carried them uncovered. So far a total of 100 reinforcements have arrived in the city.

Police Commissioner Maj.-Gen. J. A. Brink told a reporter he is moving a certain number of police into Capetown for special duty. He said he is unable to give a reason.

In the House of Assembly, Jacobus Strauss, opposition leader, warned the government there is a great deal of suppressed anxiety in the crisis provoked by the government's recent decisions on racial policy and the constitutional competence of the courts.

Strauss said: "We know as a fact that police in civilian clothes armed with rifles have been moved from the most distant parts of the country to Capetown. The public want to know what is behind the movement of police."

Several opposition members of parliament backed Strauss and repeatedly asked for a government statement. But the requests were received in silence by Prime Minister Daniel Malan and Justice Minister C. R. Swart.

CANADA'S HEALTH MAGAZINE HORRIFIES OTTAWA'S MAYOR

OTTAWA, April 30 (CP).—The Mayor of Ottawa Tuesday night took a swipe at the cover of the federal health department's magazine, Canada's Health and Welfare.

Dr. Charlotte Whitton said at a board of control meeting that the magazine cover "is the most horrible thing I have ever seen." There is the picture of this woman, her eyes filled with terror and her hands covered with loathsome sores.

The magazine, published monthly, is devoted to health and welfare information.

Health officials said the "sores" in the actress' picture were "obviously mud." The picture was from a film, made by the National Film Board for provincial health departments, which tells of a girl whose family finds her playing in the mud after a nervous breakdown.

BOBCAT, DEAD 10 YEARS, REVENGED ON MURDERER

VAN NUYS, Calif., April 30 (AP).—Hospital attendants were surprised Tuesday when Al Baden, a health department inspector, told them he'd been bitten by a bobcat—one that had been dead for 10 years.

While they treated a painful bite on his foot, Bader explained he was walking barefoot in his home when he accidentially stepped on a throw rug made from the bobcat head and pelt.

The sharp teeth closed on his foot. "It's a matter of revenge," said Bader. "I shot him 10 years ago."

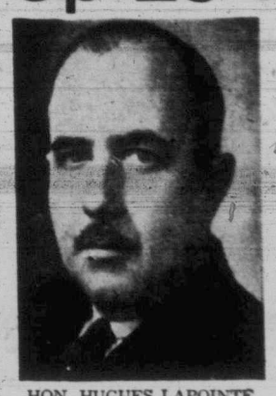
'Burned Out' Veterans' Pension Up 25 Per Cent

OTTAWA, April 30 (CP).—A 25 per cent increase in war veterans' allowances, paid to 40,000 of Canada's aged and needy overseas veterans and their dependents, was proposed Tuesday in a series of government bills introduced in the Commons.

The bill, sponsored by Veterans Minister LaPointe, would boost to $50 a month from $40 the maximum allowance payable to a single veteran or widow; to $90 from $70 to the maximum for a married recipient.

The maximum monthly allowance for an orphan would be $40; for two orphans $70 and for three orphans $85.

The ceiling on allowable outside income would be made more flexible so that veterans would be able to earn more without having their allowance reduced.



HON. HUGUES LAPOINTE
. . . announces increase

The allowances are paid to needy veterans, prematurely aged as a result of war service, to veterans' widows or to their dependents.

Spokesmen for the Opposition parties, speaking before the amount of the increases were disclosed, welcomed the move to increase the allowances. They spoke on a resolution to the bill which contained the new amounts.

The bill, made public after the resolution was adopted, will be debated later.

Also introduced and given first reading were bills to:

1. Extend for one year the government's authority to grant veterans of the Korean forces benefits similar to those granted to veterans of the Second World War.

2. Amend the Veterans' Insurance Act to make it clear that the entire amount of an insurance policy can be paid to a veteran's estate.

3. Increase the annual allowances to amputees for the wear and tear caused to clothing by artificial limbs.

In the veterans debate, Mr. LaPointe rejected the annual Opposition bid for a permanent Commons committee on veterans' affairs. The bid was made before members agreed to establishment of a committee to study the measures introduced by Mr. LaPointe.

A motion by Col. A. J. Brooks (P.C., Royal, N.B.), to widen the committee's terms of reference to take in any veterans' problem was ruled out of order by the Speaker. A number of members said Veterans' Land Act changes should be considered and that a permanent committee annually should consider inevitable changes affecting veterans as a whole.

Mr. LaPointe replied that a House committee was by no means the only way to air complaints and problems. Members could bring up any veteran's matter during the budget debate, on consideration of departmental estimates and on other occasions.

He hinted at possible changes in the Veterans' Land Act—the statute under which veterans are settled on farms and small holdings—when he said he has officials "looking into the whole question" of V.L.A.

The bill also will increase to $100 from $90 the monthly amount to pensionable dependent parents of a deceased member of the forces may receive.

U.N. Korea Casualties At April 16, 419,456

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., April 30 (AP)—Latest available reports have brought the total of U.N. casualties in Korea to an unofficial figure of 419,456.

Enemy casualties to April 16 have been estimated by the U.S. army at 1,666,069, an increase of 17,613 in two weeks.

Incomplete and unofficial figures of U.N. casualties, compiled from U.N. delegations and semi-official sources for varying periods, were 312,723 from the outbreak of the war to about the end of June, 1951. For the 10 months since then, the figures were 106,733.

Aside from the Republic of Korea, the United States suffered the heaviest losses. Korea is not a U.N. member.

The U.S. listed a total of 107,666 casualties last week.

Republic of Korea figures, available only to the early part of this year, totalled 301,864.

Other late totals, in some cases up to the early part of April:

Britain—3,025—459 dead, 1,466 wounded, 187 missing, 913 captured.

Australia—776—167 dead, 589 wounded, 20 missing.

Canada—755—140 dead, 610 wounded, 4 missing, one captured.

(The latest casualty list released Tuesday in Ottawa brought the Canadian total to 777

PRAIRIE ROUND-UP

Saskatchewan Told of Progressive Program

REGINA, April 30 (CP)—Premier T. C. Douglas said Tuesday night that in another term of office the C.C.F. government would spend $75,000,000 on roads and $50,000,000 on rural electrification.

A provincial election is expected this summer. June has been mentioned as a likely month. The C.C.F. party will be seeking a third term.

Mr. Douglas said in a broadcast speech that his government would extend the present hospital plan to cover other forms of medical care if the federal government did not step into the field. That would be done "as quickly as possible."

Money to finance the program would come from expanding natural resources development and improved agricultural production, the premier said in outlining a "program for progress." Other points in the platform call for:

Reclamation and settlement of new northern lands; continued development of oil and mineral resources; natural gas for larger cities and intermediate points; increased grants for education; extension of social welfare benefits, and construction of the South Saskatchewan River dam in co-operation with the federal government.

Premier Douglas said the two-mill public revenue tax would be abolished next Dec. 31. Provision would be made for assistance to municipalities on the basis of need.

Closure Protested

WINNIPEG, April 30 (CP)—A decision on possible closing of the University of Manitoba's school of social work is expected within a few days, Prof. C. E. Smith said Tuesday night.

The school dean said the board of governors decided to close the school after the board was asked for increased grants. This would permit the school to provide students with better instruction by extending the course from one to two years.

No date was set for closing the school and there is a possibility that the board's decision may be reversed. Scores of social groups have protested the action.

The board, in announcing its decision, said it had been made because of financial reasons.

Consecration

REGINA, April 30 (CP)—James Cardinal McGuigan, archbishop of Toronto, arrived in Regina Tuesday for the consecration today of the new Roman Catholic bishop of Saskatoon, Most Rev. Francis J. Klein.

It will be the first consecration of a Roman Catholic bishop to be held in Regina, and Bishop-Elect Klein, a native of Sedley, is the first Saskatchewan-born priest to be elevated to the episcopate.

Also taking part will be Most Rev. M. C. O'Neill, archbishop of Regina, and the Most Rev. P. F. Pocock, archbishop of Winnipeg.

Injury Fatal

LETHBRIDGE, April 30 (CP)—Barry Neilly, 14, died in hospital Tuesday of a skull fracture received Sunday when hit by a steel bolt thrown out of a passing truck.

An inquest will be held.

Revival of Militarism Still Possible—Pearson

OTTAWA, April 30 (CP)—Risk of a revival of militarism in Germany and Japan could not be completely eliminated, External Affairs Minister Pearson told a House committee Tuesday.

But he believed the safeguards in the pending defense agreements with Western Germany went as far as possible. The same was true of the peace agreement with Japan.

"They are a vital and vigorous people and are bound to grow and develop," the minister said.

"It is better that their growth and development is on the side of peace than on the side of aggression and militarism." That was the objective of Allied negotiations with both Western Germany and Japan.

Mr. Pearson was questioned by members of the external affairs committee on a wide range of subjects. Some of his comments:

1. There has been some revival of Nazi strength in Germany and Fascism in Italy but "much less than might be expected."

2. Canada's position in N.A.T.O. has been that the value of Spain's help as a member of the organization was not sufficient to offset the possible cleavage among powers that might result from Spain coming into N.A.T.O. w. the objections of France and the United Kingdom.

3. There had been no change of attitude toward Canada's recognition of Communist China in the last 12 months. Canada stood by the policy that recognition of the Pekin government could not be "even considered" while Chinese Communists are fighting U.N. forces in Korea.

DON'T GET MAD, BUT WHAT'S THAT GROWING ON YOUR BACK?

BOSTON, April 30 (AP).—What kind of yeast are you growing on the skin between your shoulder blades?

Don't answer—"Why, the very idea! My back is clean!"

Because of clean persons, perfectly healthy, at least half of us have fields of growing yeast. They are invisible, they live mostly between the shoulder blades, between toes and in armpits.

This skin yeast study was reported to the Society of American Bacteriologists Tuesday by doctors of the state college of Washington, Pulliam, Wash.

Lower Tariffs Needed Canada Hints to U.S.

WASHINGTON, April 30 (CP)—Canada today suggested to the United States that it fears the resurgence of high-walled tariff protectionism in the United States—a move that would cripple Canada's exports to its biggest foreign customer.

Hon. Douglas Abbott, Canada's finance minister, in a speech prepared for delivery to the United States Chamber of Commerce, said such a development would be the "height of folly."

The issue was of "crucial importance," not only to Canada but to other members of the North Atlantic community.

He added that Canada is "not unaware" of the "magnificent" role the United States has played in postwar years in removing trade barriers and in helping European countries to regain their feet through economic aid.

"Yet most European countries do not want to continue indefinitely as recipients of foreign aid," he said. "They want to be permitted to earn their own keep.

POSES AMBIGUITY

"They find it difficult to understand policies which encourage them to produce and export on the one hand, and on the other, impose restrictive measures which make it impossible for them to market their goods in the United States and in this way pay for their dollar imports."

Signs of a "resurgence of protectionism" were visible in such actions, as the restrictions on imports of dairy products "in contravention of trade agreements," the "long delays" in revising restrictive customs procedures "as well as the growing number of applications to your tariff commission requesting increased protection against imports."

"Clearly, if these signs were to develop into a growing protectionism, it could have serious consequences for the commercial relations between our two countries.

"When you consider the immense volume of mutually-profitable trade between us, the largest between any two countries in the world, such a development would surely be the height of folly."

Canada was "undergoing huge industrial expansion, but she still depended on foreign trade for basic prosperity. A tremendous flow of foreign capital as investment in this expansion overcame the effects of a "considerable" defecit in current trade with the rest of the world last year, Abbott said.

VITAL MARKET

"At the same time we know that borrowing today means incurring obligations to pay interest and to repay capital in the future. Hence we must have constant regard for the level of our foreign trade and the conditions which will foster its growth."

The importance of the American market to Canada could be realized when it was understood that in 1951 no less than 60 per cent of Canada's exports went to the U.S., compared with 32 per cent in 1938.

Mr. Abbott made no apologies for referring to the question of U.S. tariff policy.

"We in Canada and the United States have become accustomed to speaking to one another frankly on matters of this kind. May I add that in Canada we have taken some comfort from the efforts of the United States administration and various private organizations like your own to point out the serious implications of these issues."

WHILE MEMORIAL services for seven naval airmen were being conducted on board the carrier Magnificent off the southwest coast of Nova Scotia, an eighth victim, Lieut. William John Spencer crashed at Shearwater naval base, N.S. Spencer, a 28-year-old navy pilot from Trenton, Ont., and Dartmouth, N.S., was killed when his Avenger aircraft apparently developed engine trouble and crashed into a lake, near his home base. He was the eighth naval airman to die within a week. The seven others, whose bodies have not been recovered, died when two Avengers collided in mid-air during training exercises off Nova Scotia coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30 (AP).—A Honolulu-to-Portland Northwest Airlines passenger plane changed course Monday night and landed here after one of its four engines conked out in mid-Pacific. The plane, carrying 40 passengers, was escorted to a safe landing at San Francisco airport by four military planes which flew out to meet it.

Northwest Gas Inc. Gets Rights Into North Idaho

Will Make Natural Gas Available at B.C.'s Boundary Near Osoyoos; No Other Available

BOISE, April 30 (AP)—The Idaho Public Utilities Commission Tuesday granted Trans-Northwest Gas Inc., a certificate of convenience and necessity to transport natural gas into seven northern Idaho counties.

The order gives Trans-Northwest the right "to construct and maintain transmission lines for the transportation of natural gas into, through and across the counties of Boundary, Bonner, Kootenay, Shoshone, Benewah, Latah and Nez Perce.

The commission said since the Alberta government has declared that present gas reserves from central and southern Alberta are not now available for international export, the only source of gas for northern Idaho is through the export facilities of the West Coast Transmission Company Ltd. This firm proposes to make natural gas available to Trans-Northwest at or near Osoyoos, B.C., at the international boundary.

Gas will then be transmitted into the State of Washington and thence into Idaho.

The commission found that there is no other natural gas available under current conditions for export from Canada.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

Dr. Jack Mercer, the handsome dentist and enthusiastic Gyro, found himself in a little trouble Monday.

He was a bit late for the Gyro luncheon and, dashing into the hotel, he hurriedly purchased a ticket and slipped into a seat in the ballroom.

Counting his change, he wondered vaguely why the price of the lunch had gone up from $1.55 to $2.12, but decided it must be a special assessment of some sort.

Then he looked around the room, and wondered some more. "Lots of new faces today," he said to himself. "That membership drive must be really rolling."

It wasn't until the man in the neighboring seat asked him what Community Chest he represented that Jack realized he was in the wrong luncheon meeting.

And, just to rub it in, his fellow Gyros fined him a dime when he finally turned up at the right place.

Don Wilson has put me straight on the Readers Digest and his use of same as source material for various radio programs.

"I was NOT using the current Digest," he protests. "I was using a book called 'Funfare,' which is a Readers Digest digest of the Readers Digest.

"And you know something? The current Readers Digest is reprinting things from 'funfare,' which reprinted things from early Readers Digests, which reprinted things . . ."

Well, anyway.

Special Notice to the Demon Fire: Please stay away from Victoria until a new civic government is elected.

If you will be so kind as to co-operate, Demon Fire, the present city council can be re-elected in clouds of economizing glory.

If, on the other hand, you should dare to strike in two places at once—say in the Point Ellice Bridge area and at Ogden Point with a couple of ships in—you would knock flaming Hades out of short-sighted scrimping on essential services.

In brief, Demon Fire, please stay away—we can't afford you.

I see by yesterday's editorial page that our Mr. Hutchison has "gone to pot."

At a service club luncheon the other day, Bill Hudson was called on to make a report.

At the same time, a radio technician was working on the public address system, so the chain of events went like this:

Chairman: "And now, we will hear from Bill Hudson."

Public Address System: BBBAAAAAAAAAHHHHH!

Chairman: "Thank you, Bill Hudson."

Two Victoria Officers Named Aides to Massey

Two high-ranking Victoria officers have been named honorary aides-de-camp to Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, Governor-General, it was announced by Government House, Ottawa, Tuesday night.

They are Commodore K. F. Adams, R.C.N., and Lt.-Col. W. J. Mosedale.

Commodore Adams and Lt.-Col. Mosedale were on the list of 48 names. British Columbians listed, in addition, were Lt.-Col. Cecil Merritt, V.C., Vancouver; Wing Comdr. H. D. Cleveland, D.F.C., Vancouver, and Cmdr. G. G. McDonald, Vancouver.

Both Victorians honored were born and brought up here.

Commodore Adams, who had a brilliant wartime career with the navy, commands H.M.C.S. Naden.

Lt.-Col. Mosedale, who was a staff officer with the 1st Canadian Army throughout the northwest Europe campaign in Second World War, now commands the reserve battalion of the Canadian Scottish Regiment (Princess Mary's).

A rugby player in his more youthful days in Victoria, Commodore Adams is a graduate of the Royal Naval College of Canada. He joined the permanent navy in 1919. Since then he has served in many capacities, ashore and afloat, and has played an important part in the growth of the service.

COMMODORE ADAMS

COLONEL MOSEDALE

X.O. STADACONA

At the outbreak of the last war, he was appointed executive officer of H.M.C.S. Stadacona, the navy's shore establishment at Halifax. In February, 1941, he was given command of his first sea-going ship in wartime — the auxiliary cruiser H.M.C.S. Prince David.

He was appointed director of naval warfare and training at Ottawa in 1943 and served in that capacity until the summer of 1944. He was sent then to command the new training base at Bermuda. Early in 1945 Commodore Adams took command of H.M.C.S. Iroquois, with the Home Fleet at Scapa Flow, and worked the painful Murmansk run. Subsequently he commanded Haida and Huron—and with these three ships in company returned to Halifax in June, 1945.

A subsequent command of the aircraft carrier Magnificent for two years, and returned here to Naden.

"FIGHTING FIRST"

Lieut.-Col. Mosedale joined the Canadian Scottish as a private in 1937. He went active with the N.P.A.M. unit when war broke out in 1939, was overseas with the "Fighting First" and there was selected from the 3rd Canadian Infantry Division to the direction staff at the Royal Canadian Military College, Kingston, in 1943.

After eight months there, he qualified as a general staff officer, was returned to England and served in that capacity with the 1st Canadian Army throughout the European campain.

On returning here after the war, Lieut.-Col. Mosedale joined the Scottish reserve as company commander. He was later appointed second-in-command and two years ago assumed command of the Scottish reserve unit. General sales manager at Gladwell Motors, the 40-year-old colonel is now also commandant of Bay Street Armories.

Officers Names For Alaska Trip On Secret List

The navy has lifted restrictions on coming operational movements of H.M.C.S. Ontario. But the names of the officers who will man her remain on the classified list.

That means they are secret.

Ontario, 9,000-ton Esquimalt-based cruiser, will leave in mid-June for Alaskan waters.

The ship will carry a full complement of trainees, in addition to a special group of defense officials.

Prior to the June cruise, Ontario will assist the destroyer H.M.C.S. Crusader in "working-up" exercises in the vicinity of Nanoose Bay.

The cruiser and destroyer will leave early Monday morning on this exercise, which will take several days.

CRUSADER GOES EAST

The exercise will be the final work for Crusader before she sails for Korea May 25.

Ontario will serve as target for Crusader's torpedo batteries.

During the Alaska cruise Ontario ship's company will be subjected to intensive taining.

FREAK TULIP IN SAANICH

First it was a six-headed tulip, now it's an eight-bloom freak.

It's a lovely freak, however. It was grown by Mrs. A. G. Slocomb, 1564 Oakcrest Drive, Saanich.

There are eight perfect tulips growing from a single stem, out of an imported bulb, bought locally.

Neighbors call it "Mrs. Slocomb's tulip tree" and it is a subject of wide curiosity.

INDUSTRY MOVES TO KITIMAT

Canadian Liquid Air Company Ltd. is to establish an oxygen and acetylene making plant at Kitimat.

Announcement of the new plant was made today by Lands Minister E. T. Kenney, who stressed that the liquid air industry would actually be the first manufacturing plant at the up-coast site.

Although no estimate of the plant's cost was given, the minister said the establishment would be "extensive."

Products of the new plant will be used in the initial construction of the Kitimat development of the Aluminum Company of Canada's big processing plant. The liquid air products are used extensively in welding and associated processes.

The Kitimat establishment will be the 18th plant in the Canadian Liquid Air network throughout Canada.

Said Mr. Kenney: "This more convenient source of supply will not only make easier the operations of many consumers in the section of country, but should assist materially in the industrial progress of the region."

Gales Drive Small Boats Aground

Gales up to 60 miles per hour which raked the Strait of Georgia Tuesday night drove at least two small boats aground.

However, the department of transport in Victoria and the U.S. Coast Guard reported no loss of life or injury in either grounding.

The tug Victoria Strait, with its six-man crew, was driven aground on Mary Island, 35 miles north northwest of Vancouver.

The tug was not holed and officials of Straits Towing Co., owners of the vessel, said in Vancouver it was not taking water. Capt. Alec Amies, of Port Washington, B.C., reported that all of his crew was safe and he expected to refloat the vessel at high tide tonight. The tug Salvage Queen was standing by.

On Breakwater Island, near Gabriola Pass, the American halibut boat Alava was hard aground. The vessel was spotted from the air by a U.S. Coast Guard flying boat. Two men were sighted on the beach near the stranded vessel.

The fish boat Cirrus is standing by offshore and a U.S. Coast Guard patrol boat was proceeding to the scene.

A wind that picked up early Tuesday evening reached a peak of 36 miles per hour at 3.30 a.m. today, and gusts were clocked at 46 miles.

Although it settled down later in the city, it continued to blow along the coast, and was measured at 52 knots at Pechena Point just before noon.

There will be a few clouds and scattered showers tonight, according to the weatherman, but Thursday is expected to be generally sunny. Temperatures will range from 40 to 56 degrees tonight and Thursday.

City Hall Staff Fears Raises May Cost Jobs

City employees fear they will pay in lost jobs for salary increases awarded either in conciliation or by negotiation.

This was the picture following City Council's first all-day budget chopping spree when it sliced $89,000 or more than 1½ mills from record high provisional estimates, calling for a 61 mill tax rate.

Although the fire department took the brunt of the onslaught with 14 men and a fire hall to go, others were not unscathed as council in committee strove to knock the tax rate down to 58 mills.

Staff cuts were urged in public works, building and electrical inspection and janitorial service.

Council will meet again Thursday morning at 9.30 on estimates.

Tenor of aldermanic argument was that if department heads did not cut their budgets as requested, "get department heads who would."

Fire Chief F. W. Briers opposed elimination of No. 2 fire hall and staff reduction "in the public interest," in a letter read at Tuesday's meeting.

THREAT TO CHIEF

"If he isn't going to do it, get a chief who will," said Ald. Robert Macmillan.

Ald. Brent Murdoch argued against council specifying how a department budget was to be cut. He felt it should be left to the department concerned, who knew the best place to cut.

Ald. Waldo Skillings said there was not a department head who wanted to fire a man.

"Turn these estimates back to the department heads and ask them to cut $200,000," said Ald. Murdoch. "If they don't do it, get department heads who will."

Abolition of the Yates Street fire station was approved in the morning. In the afternoon Ald. Murdoch sought to have the motion rescinded and the matter tabled until the end of estimates, but was defeated 8-2.

His recommendation was carried out, however, for other departments.

Police were asked to trim their $425,251 estimates. Building inspector's office was ordered to cut $4,000. Public works must lop $7,000 off its salary bill, which is equivalent of four inside employees for remainder of the year.

A $7,000 estimate to set up office of smoke inspector was pared to $2,000. Ald. Percy Scurrah said he could get a man for $3,000. With only seven months of the year left, $2,000 was put in the budget.

Here are the cuts in the first day's budget slashing: Estimated $30,000 from fire department; $5,000 smoke inspector; $2,000 radio equipment for electrical department trucks; $23,192 street maintenance; $15,000 new street work; $7,000 public works salaries; $4,000 from building inspector's office; $400 from electrical maintenance; $2,500 from legal departments.

In addition City Manager Cecil Wyatt will look into possible use of civilian telephone and alarm operators at the firehall.

Police estimates include provision for two additional police. Ald. Macmillan asked the city to study possibility of R.C.M.P. taking over policing in Victoria. Ald. Percy Scurrah said the matter had been studied and the R.C.M.P. was not interested.

At the morning estimates session Tuesday, Ald. Pinfold contended the $90,000 listed for superannuation, and similar contributions by the city, totaling $148,000, should be included in the wage picture.

"Benefits are covered up. A man getting $250 a month is getting a lot more," he said. "There are nearly three mills there and nothing is ever said about it.

ROAD PAVING TENDERS OPEN THURSDAY, FRIDAY

Tenders for road-paving work in various sections of the province will be opened by the public works department Thursday and Friday. Bids were called some time ago for the work, much of which pertains to sections of provincial roads which will be part of the Trans-Canada Highway.

Tenders to be opened at noon Thursday will be for work in the East and West Kootenay districts and the Okanagan.

Tenders to be opened at noon Friday will be for work on Vancouver Island, the central interior, lower mainland and North Vancouver.

'THE PEOPLE'S PETS'

Mayor Opposes R.C.M.P. As City Police Force

The R.C.M.P. are "the people's pets, like canaries and cats," Mayor Claude Harrison said today at a police commission meeting regarding a proposal by Ald. Robert Macmillan to have the federal force police the city.

He called Ald. Macmillan's suggestion "a very unwise move."

"We want to avoid it," the mayor said.

He referred to city council reaction in Port Alberni following the switch-over from the B.C. Police as dissatisfaction with the move when first made.

But, he said, the people did not object to the "Mounties" because the R.C.M.P. is so highly publicized.

CUT OFF $10,000

Commissioners whittled nearly $10,000 from the original $422,793 estimate for 1952 to be submitted to city council shortly.

Nearly $2,000 was cut off estimates for redecoration of court offices, legal fees, printing and general maintenance expense, and traffic films.

Maintenance and repair of police radios—estimated at about $2,900—was cut by $2,500.

A suggested cut on a request for three extra men for the investigation branch would see a saving of about $4,000, since commissioners decided tentatively to allow only one man to be added to that office.

Commissioners will refer to city council items covering collision and sickness insurance, but they agreed to make a cut of $1,000 before submission to council.

Building Permit Price Up 15 P.C.

A 15 per cent boost in building, plumbing and wiring permits approved by City Council Tuesday would mean an increase of $3,703, based on last year's building.

The city received $24,689 in fees on construction valued at $5,211,620 last year.

The increase will mean addition of $3.75 to the permit fee for a structure valued between $9,000 and $10,000. On a $1,000,000 building the increase will be $15.44.

Saanich Man Remanded Without Plea

A 32-year-old Saanich man was remanded to Monday without plea in police court today on a charge of retaining stolen goods after his arrest Tuesday afternoon by city police.

John Douglas Lemarchand, 3919 Winton, answered the charge and was remanded on the request of his lawyer, James J. Proudfoot.

Lemarchand was picked up Monday night after a Fairfield resident reported a man acting in a suspicious manner in the district. Lemarchand was questioned by police and later released, but was arrested Tuesday and charged.

Police hint at several charges.

Lemarchand was charged specifically with retaining a box of tools valued at more than $100, allegedly stolen.

The tools were identified as those missed several months ago from a basement suite, following an attack on a woman with a metal furnace shaker by an unidentified man. She suffered head cuts.

Investigating detectives were Norman Bath, Angus Munro, Alex Briggs and Louis Callen.

IN COLORFUL CEREMONY

Men of Ontario Receive Mace From Name-Province

The 15-man brass band of H.M.C.S. Ontario paraded on H.M.C. Dockyard jetty at 11.30 this morning to receive a sterling-silver mounted mace, gift of the people of Ontario to the ship.

In an impressive, colorful ceremony under a brilliant sun, the band slow-marched along the jetty to "Road to the Isles." Then the tempo quickened, the men countermarched and, as the tune changed to "White Horse Inn March," they quick-marched past the reviewing stand.

The mace was presented to the commanding officer of the ship, Capt. E. P. Tisdall, by Dr. A. H. Mahaffey, C.M.G., who represented the people of Ontario and Premier Leslie Frost.

The mace will be carried by Leading Seaman Robert G. Murray, of Penticton and Victoria, drum major of the band. It was hand-made by Maurice Carmichael, Toronto, silversmiths, and features a terrestial globe, mounted on an ebonized birch staff.

A small silver bear, taken from the provincial coat-of-arms, is mounted on a platform surmounted by a naval crown. The globe bears the coat-of-arms of the province of Ontario on one side, and on the other the inscription: "Presented by the people of Ontario on the occasion of the embarkation of Their Royal Highnesses, Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, Nov. 9, 1951."

Victoria Gas, Fuel Oil Supplies Not Threatened

Fuel supplies for B.C. motor traffic are not directly threatened yet by the widespread oil refinery workers' strike in the U.S., local dealers said today.

Stocks of gasoline and fuel oil on hand should last for about a month, distributors here estimated. In addition, most refined oil products for the Victoria and other major B.C. markets come from California. The refinery workers in California, it was pointed out, are a separate group and are reported to have reached a settlement with the refinery operators.

Oil dealers here felt, however, that while the hold-up in refinery operations was mostly confined to the eastern markets, the effect might be felt here within about a month if the strike continued.

B.C. gets crude oil by tank car from the prairies, dealers said, and most of this western oil goes to California to be refined. As long as the refinery strike was confined to the east, in the opinion of most dealers here, B.C. could be assured of steady supplies.

Investment dealers here reported that the slowdown of oil production in the U.S. would probably buck up the Canadian oil companies' stocks.

The two leaders in the Canadian oil production picture, British American and Imperial, were selling strong and at good levels on the stock market today.

Buttle Appeal Decision Due From Minister

Lands Minister E. T. Kenney was expected to bring down his decision later today or sometime Thursday with regard to the appeal against government licensing of B.C. Power Commission to dam Buttle Lake.

COURT ACTION MAY FOLLOW

It is anticipated the decsiion will uphold the ruling of B.C. Water Comptroller E. H. Tredcroft, who granted the license. Main opposition groups "boycotted" the appeal hearing, leaving the way clear for B.C. Power Commission representatives to strengthen their case on behalf of building the dam.

Vancouver barrister Tom Norris, Q.C., who has led opposition forces, stated some time ago the lands minister's decision was "a foregone conclusion," and indicated he would apply to the courts once the decision was handed down.

OLD SOL'S SHINE FADES A LITTLE

Victoria's reputation as being "Canada's most beautiful city," might be solid but in the sunshine department to date it's just a little misty around the edges.

To date this year the "evergreen playground" has enjoyed 472 hours of sunshine—186 hours less than at the same time last year.

But last year, with its brilliance and dryness, was extraordinary you say.

Yes but—Victoria's sunshine this year to date is 49 hours less than the annual average quota.

Adding to the Chamber of Commerce dismay is the paradox that last year, the dry year, precipitation was two inches below normal.

Oh well . . .

Youths Fined For Breaking Arena Window

Three youths were fined $18 each in police court today as the result of smashing a Memorial Arena window.

Fined $10 each on a charge of wilful damage were Edward H. Ricketts, 808 Lampson; Charles R. Maisey, Belmont Motel, Colwood; Donald Ulrich, Beverley Hotel.

Magistrate H. C. Hall also ordered the trio to pay $6 each to cover the cost of repainting the window.

The three pleaded guilty to the charge.

Fined $25 was naval rating Charles B. Chaput, H.M.C.S. Naden, after pleading guilty to obstructing Constable Kenneth Williamson while the officer was engaged in performing his duties.

Two servicemen were fined $25 each for failing to have a current driver's license.

They were James W. Harvey, Gordon Head Camp; and Laurance O. Tease, H.M.C.S. Crusader. Both pleaded guilty.

Violation of a driver's license restriction cost Herbert D. Brown, Port Alberni, $25 after he pleaded guilty.

Careless driving resulted in a $35 fine for Leslie J. Coulter, 653 Grenville.

Cop Candy Keeps Lost Kiddies Happy

It was fine until the candy supply ran out.

"Then the tears started to roll and a thumb replaced the candy," said city police sergeant Thomas Bannister today as he told how he and other police officers played host to a lost four-year-old Tuesday for a couple of hours.

Blonde-haired Cherry Olsen and the sergeant (top right) got along famously but Cherry couldn't speak any English and no one else could speak Danish, so candy kept things rolling until the little fellow had eaten it all, then stuck his thumb in his mouth and started to cry.

The happy ending came when Cherry's mother came down to the station and took the four-year-old home to 218 Oswego.

But Sgt. Bannister had competition in the lost child department when Sgt. Sid Wilkinson came on duty—he played nursemaid to Jan Olson, 1415 Gladstone, after the tiny boy had also been turned in as a lost child.

Water Main Will Improve Conditions

Recent completion of a 10-inch water main along Interurban Road will improve conditions in the Wilkinson Road-Royal Oak area of Saanich, according to Henry Blakeney, Saanich superintendent of works.

A connection is yet to be made to a main at Burnside and Marigold.

Mr. Blakeney said today the new pipe will go a long way toward eliminating critical conditions at high points in the area, where water service has been "touch and go" during the summer months.

Police Order Burial of Unknown Man

NANAIMO, April 30.—R.C.M.P. have been instructed by the coroner to bury the unidentified remains of an elderly man found Saturday in the bush near Parksville.

They were first seen by children, who reported their find to Const. W. R. Norman, Qualicum. It is believed death occurred about two years ago.

He was likely from outside of the Nanaimo and Parksville areas, since neither has any missing persons listed.

Remains were clothed in blue coveralls bearing the name of a Vancouver firm, "Canadian Boxes Ltd."

Pioneer Family's Daughter Mourned

Miss Gertrude Dearing, Central Saanich Road, a member of a pioner family to this area, died Tuesday. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Dearing, pioneer residents of Saanich. She is survived by a sister, Miss Lillian, of the same address, and two brothers, Ernest M. of Vancouver, and Wilbur, Colborne, Ont. Funeral arrangements will be announced.

Picture Hanging Is Easy As A-B-C With New Gadget

By PENNY SAVER

I can't talk too loud, just in case there's a male in the vicinity.

I've got something to tell you that will leave the men dumbfounded.

Have you ever watched a many trying to hang a picture? They should charge two bits a performance. It's really something to see.

Usually they start out with a screw driver and end up with all the tools in the house before the job is done—two hours later. It's quite likely that at this stage of the game you'll discover that the hanger is either too high or too low to do the picture justice. So we start all over again.

Now—this is what I want to tell you without letting the "handy-man" hear.

Here's how it's done!

You hop into town and spend 25 pennies on a new type hanger that sticks on the wall. Don't worry it won't fall off. It is guaranteed to hold 15 pounds.

The square of extra strong adhesive has the hook conveniently placed for the picture.

The hanger will stay put on plastic, tile, wood, glass and concrete.

Doesn't that sound wonderful to you. Gracious! You could have more fun than a picnic if you kept it a secret and all of a sudden your husband found the job done for him.

He may like it, he may not. You'll have to be the judge of that.

Metals Play Important Part In Development of World

Tracing the part that metals have played competitively and economically in the industrial development of the world, and stressing the fortunate position that Canada holds today with its wealth of mineral resources, Dr. John F. Walker, deputy minister of mines, gave an interesting address to the Women's Canadian Club, in the Empress Hotel on Tuesday.

His subject was "The Importance of Metals."

Dr. Walker told his audience that in 1890 the United States became the leading industrial nation but as the country was young they didn't start competing in the world market until after the First World War. A few years later the U.S. output exceeded that of the combined three leading producers, the United Kingdom, Germany and France.

Today the United States produces 105 million tons of steel and 58 million pig iron and with one-fifteenth of the world population is using half of the world output. Of these two metals, 800 pounds per capita per annum is used in the U.S., 143 per capita in Europe and 50 in other countries. The same is true in the use of electricity and fuels, he stated.

Europe cannot hope to have the same standard in these respects, Dr. Walker said, as long as they have such a high population in relation to their metal resources.

The United States is now in the same position in regards to metal that the United Kingdom was 80 years ago, he said. The population, now 860 million, is getting too much for the land and they have been forced to import essential metals. They must import to keep their machines going and they must get rid of the machine products to keep people employed.

"Conditions in the United States must affect Canada," he stated, adding "We are in a most fortunate position by having more than we need. Canada has land to support more people and mineral resources far in excess of what is needed."

Mrs. W. H. Wilson, president, thanked the speaker.

CLUB WOMEN'S NEWS

Banquet—Order Daughters of St. George held a banquet recently to mark St. George's Day. Mrs. E. Limer spoke on her trip through Europe and Mrs. Rose Williams was presented with birthday cake from drill team.

Flower Show — St. Mark's Chancel Guild sponsored a spring flower show recently in Mahon Hall, Ganges. Mrs. C. H. Trafford was in charge of a shadow box exhibition.

Delegates Named — Mrs. N. Brown and Mrs. C. Jones were named delegates to the B.C. Women's Institutes' conference in Vancouver in June, at a recent meeting of Victoria Women's Institute. Mrs. H. Tyrrell and Mrs. E. Thomas were named alternates. Mrs. Brown presided; $2 was donated to the Lady Alexander gift fund; Mrs. E. Tanner reported a parcel sent to an institute in England. It was announced that Mrs. Brown will convene a sale of work and spring tea in the Y.W.C.A. on May 9 with Mrs. S. Macro, flowers; Mrs. E. Fanthorpe, aprons; Mesdames J. MacKay, Tanner, A. Robinson, Thomas and R. O'Hara, tea. Home cooking and superfluities will also be sold.

Hospital Day—Women's Auxiliary to Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital, Ganges, will hold Hospital Day, May 8. Mrs. W. M. Mouat and Mrs. E. Adam will receive shower gifts and Mrs. Donald Jenkins, junior hospital auxiliary, will convene tea. Mrs. G. Lowe will be in charge of decoration; Mrs. B. Hunt, fortune telling; Mrs. S. Clarke, numerology; Miss Mary Lees, home cooking and candy; and Mrs. J. Kelsey, plants and flowers. At the recent meeting of auxiliary Mrs. F. H. Newnham presided and Mrs. S. Bake your favorite sponge cake in two layers. Cool and spread with currant jelly. Then put layers together with whipped cream and canned cling peach slices. Frost the top with more of the same. Serve at once. It'll serve eight to ten, so plan it for a party menu.

Shower Will Help These Children

Bonnie, Terry and Donna, left to right, are in that group of children who live at the Protestant Orphan's Home, where the annual linen shower will be held on Thursday afternoon under auspices of the ladies' committee. Donations of money and linens will be received. The matron, Mrs. A. Barner, has said there is a special need for sheets and hand towels of terry cloth. The children will take part in a short program and afternoon tea will be served from 3 to 5.

Fresh celery leaves are not exclusively for the soup pot. Mince them fine and add to creamed fish, creamed vegetables, tossed salads, salad dressing, scalloped meats, fish or seafood.

Past Mistresses Name Officers

Mrs. E. Bell was elected president of the Past Mistresses' Club, L.O.B.A., at annual meeting held at the home of Mrs. E. Hume, Camrose Crescent, with Mrs. B. Leask presiding.

Other officers are Mrs. R. Cook, first vice-president; Mrs. E. Bosfield, second; Mrs. H. Anderson, secretary; Mrs. E. Ard, treasurer; Mrs. V. Elwood, sick; Mrs. B. Leask, welfare; Mrs. E. Hume and Mrs. I. Burt, auditors.

Mrs. T. Noel was in charge of the election and the installation which followed.

Reporting for the welfare work during the year, Mrs. Noel listed five parcels sent to Loyal Protestant Home in New Westminster, including six hand-made quilts, sweaters, socks, sick room needs and other necessities.

Mrs. Leask was thanked for her year's work and presented with a gift on behalf of the club, by Mrs. E. Bell.

Pythian Sisters to Receive Their Supreme Chief in City

Members of Pythian Sisters lodges in this city are preparing for the most outstanding event in their history in the past 16 years — visit of their supreme chief, Cleone Hogan, on Wednesday, May 7.

In the past 30 years, only once has a supreme chief visited temples in Victoria and that was in 1935 when Mrs. Kate M. H. Davies, Vancouver, held the office.

Hostess temples for district No. 5 will be Island Temple, No. 8, and Capital City, No. 35.

During the visit a class of candidates will be initiated and obligated by the supreme chief, who will use the original Pythian bible and altar cloth used to obligate the first Pythian Sisters at Warsaw, Ind., in 1888, when the order was organized.

Initiatory work will be exemplified by district officers from Ladysmith Temple, No. 5; Maple, No. 20, Duncan; May, No. 34, Chemainus; Victory, No. 36, Sidney, V.I.; Island and Capital City Temples, Victoria, and Victory Temple degree staff.

Welcome committee in Victoria is headed by Miss Vera Mesher, grand junior; Mrs. Beatrice Marshall, most excellent chief, Island Temple; Mrs. Lucy Keiser, deputy grand chief, and Mrs. Gwen Hess, most excellent chief, Capital City Temple.

A banquet will be held in K. of P. Hall at 7 p.m. next Wednesday followed by a display by Margaret Rose Council No. 1, Pythian Sunshine Girls drill team and a "friendship garden" for the supreme chief, presented by officers of Island and Capital City Temples.

At 8 o'clock the regular temple meeting will commence when the initiatory and obligation will take place.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Climate Affects Wrinkles; But You Can Whip Them

The question of extremely dry skin is an important one to women because the skin wrinkles like leather cracks when it is not well lubricated. The woman with a dry skin will wrinkle long before her oiler skinned sister unless she works to avoid it.

Wrinkles, or the extent of lining, depend on many factors. First is the amount of natural oils in the skin. Next comes age because these oils lessen with the years. Tone of the tissues also plays its part. This is dependent on age to some extent, general nourishment and exercise.

Weight is also important. While the overweight woman may have a double chin she is less subject to wrinkles because she has more fatty padding between the skin and the muscles. This is one reason I believe that a woman, to look her best, should weigh five or six pounds more at the age of 45 than was best for her at the age of 25. Her figure is still lovely and her face fresher. The fat padding between the skin and the muscles decreases as she grows older.

The climate you live in is a big factor. If you live in a warm, moist climate you may feel tired but your skin will not wrinkle so easily. If you live in a very dry climate or are out in the sun a lot you are a suspect for facial lines.

A woman must take all of these factors into consideration. If she lives in a dry climate or has a dry skin or is older she should take more serious steps in daily lubrication than if she is younger, or lives in a damp climate or is pleasantly plump.

Sooner or later one or more of these factors catch up with all of us and we should just give up and settle down to look years older unless we are willing to pay the price in daily care for prolonged youthfulness.

Do not forget facial expressions. Exaggerated grimaces, mugging and frowning and lifting the eyebrows will age you in appearance rapidly, at any age, and no amount of oils or creams can undo the damage.

Take Part in Installation

Installation ceremonies of Loyal Order of Moose, No. 1390 was held recently with Miss M. Brown as ritualistic chairman and escorts of Victoria Chapter No. 25, Women of the Moose participating.

Senior regent A. Hopley presided at the recent meeting of the chapter. Committee chairmen reported on activities. Mrs. F. Benzie will convene a telephone whist drive in May.

Graduate regent D. Guelpa reported on arrangements for friendship session and chapter rally on May 4. Miss Guelpa was presented with a gift by J. Johnstone for her services as secretary of the bowling league for past two years.

Cordova Bay—"Is your child ready for school?" was the theme of recent meeting of Cordova Bay P.T.A. Mrs. L. Walker Saanich health nurse, showed a film strip of "Wally's First Day at School." Miss W. Smith, first grade teacher, suggested ways in which parents can prepare their child for school life. R. L. Chase, M. A. Scott, R. Cleland and F. Belsham presented a musical skit. It was decided to sponsor an old-time dance at McMorran's on May 23 for adults and teen-agers. Appointed to nominations committee were Mesdames I. Green, G. Watson and Mr. L. Schmelz. Graduating class and their parents will be honored with entertainment and strawberries and cream in June.

Ice Cream Treats—Kiddies Love Them—On All Special Occasions

How often we hear groups of children chanting the old-time rhyme "You scream, I scream, we all scream for ice cream." Takes us back a bit, doesn't it? And you know, this is one fashion that will never be pushed out of place—for the business of clamoring for ice cream is one that's deeply rooted from our earliest days. And a good thing, too, when we remember that ice cream is one of our fine dairy foods—rich in the food essentials of milk—and welcome at any time of the day or year.

Want to make a real hit with your offsprings—with the small fry who are delighted every time they hear Mom say, "we're going to have ice cream"? Any youngster thinks he's having a party every time he eats ice cream, but when you use some of these novel ice cream ideas just watch their eyes pop out in wonder.

Ice cream clowns completely captivate little boys. You'll find that little girls "fall" for them too!

ICE CREAM CLOWNS

Jaunty, slightly saucy-looking ice cream clowns are easy to get ready. Just use large chocolate or ginger cookies for the ruffle round his neck, and top the cookie with a large scoop of ice cream. The ice cream is his face, and raisin eyes and a cherry for his mouth give him just the right "come hither and eat me" he seems to be saying. Stick his clown hat on — really an ice cream cone—and give it a pom-pom and a couple of rosettes with whipped cream. Then put this most edible of clowns in front of the children. The twinkle in their eyes and their gasps of delight will certainly repay you for your ingenious flick of the wrist.

Ice cream clowns will be a great sensation—and so of course will the other ice cream treats we're suggesting today — ice cream bunnies, ice cream circuses, ice cream banana boats and ice cream roosters. For most of these novelties all you'll need are ingredients you have in your own kitchen—cookies, fruit, nuts, whipped cream and, of course, creamy smooth ice cream—as near as your corner store. Not only will these ice ceam treats delight the kiddies, but besides having the party menus fairly well in hand you'll be able to serve most of these novelties as place cards and dessert all in one.

TO MAKE THEN

Use large chocolate or ginger cookies about four inches in diameter. Place a scoop of vanilla ice cream in the centre of the clown's face. Then top with an ice cream cone for his hat. Using pastry tube, pipe whipped cream around the lower edge of cone. Add a row of small rosettes up the centre of the hat and one on top. Use raisins for the eyes and a large red cherry for the clown's nose.

ICE CREAM BUNNIES

Use one large scoop of strawberry ice cream for the bunny's body. For the head attach a smaller scoop of ice cream to the body securing with a toothpick. Then halve lady fingers and stick them to the back of the head for his large ears. Raisins are used for eyes and a daub of whipped cream for his short white tail.

ICE CREAM CIRCUSES

Make large ginger or chocolate cookies about four inches in diameter. Place a scoop of ice cream, any flavor, in the centre. Stand four small animal crackers around the ice cream. If desired, small candy canes may be placed in back of each animal cracker. An ice cream sauce can be served with this sundae.

ICE CREAM BANANA BOATS

Slice a large banana in half lengthwise. Place a small scoop of ice cream, any flavor, on the centre of the cut side of banana, the sail. To make the sail, insert Near the back of the scoop stand a colored toothpick through the side of a triangular piece of paper. Write the child's name on the sail.

ICE CREAM ROOSTERS

Use one large scoop of maple ice cream for the rooster's body. Attach a smaller scoop of ice cream to the body with a toothpick for his head. (This scoop should be placed at an angle, not right on top of the body.) Then place a row of red cinnamon candies on top of the rooster's head for his comb. Use raisins for eyes and a half peanut for beak. Cut thin strips of orange or lemon peel and place several strips along each side of the body for wings and four or five at the back of his body for a tail. Pecans may be used for feet. Rooster may be "perched" on a thin piece of sponge cake.

CLUB CALENDAR

Final meeting, Young Adult Group, Victoria Musical Arts Society, at home of Dr. R. Manning, 1311 Point Street, Friday at 8. Election of officers followed by musical program . . . Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E., Friday at 2.15, headquarters.

A delicious appetizer for a guest dinner is made this way. Quarter canned artichoke hearts and combine with balls of Calavo avocado and tiny cocktail onions. Douse liberally with a spicy cocktail sauce and serve chilled.

GIRL GUIDES

Langford — Reorganization of Langford Guide Association will be discussed at meeting Thursday at 6.30 in former fire hall by Langford community hall.

Esquimalt—Brownies and girl guides of Esquimalt district, with help of sea rangers of Victoria division, are planning to sell girl guide cookies in Esquimalt and Victoria West area from 4.30 to 7.30 p.m. on Friday. The girls will wear uniform and will canvass every house in that district. It is their aim and ambition to sell 2,040 boxes of cookies (100 cartons) during this three-hour period. The money obtained will be divided between the groups and will go toward company and pack funds, and helping to defray expenses of five girls going to the dominion camp at Ottawa in the summer.

Perfume That Clings

Q.—Dear Claire: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.
—Mrs. A. W.

A.—A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a brand new fragrance medium by Houbigant called Liquid Skin Sachet. It soothes on the skin very easily and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance. Try this Houbigant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $2.00. ***

TITLE CHANGE FOR LIBERALS IN BRITAIN

To Be Discussed At Part Assembly

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 30 (CP)—A proposal that Britain's Liberals should call themselves the "radical party" will be discussed at the annual Liberal Assembly May 15-17.

The resolution, which comes from Liberals in Salisbury, is not likely to receive much support, although the same word crops up in the "radical program" which the party leadership says it has prepared for the assembly.

If a radical Liberal is a left-wing Liberal, the Salisbury proposal would perhaps run counter to present trends within the parliamentary Liberal Party. Of the three members who met defeat at the polls in last October's general election, all were to the left of the party, leaving only six "moderates" headed by Clement Davies to carry on the fight.

GREATER UNITY

The result has been a greater show of Liberal unity in Parliamentary divisions, in contrast to the split which developed in the previous Parliament as the left-wingers led by Lady Megan Lloyd George, went their own way.

The Liberals still are an extremely weak force numerically in British politics, and they know it. The party machine now is in process of reconditioning. Teams from London headquarters are out in the provinces, working with local officials on a three-point reorganization campaign.

Under supervision of Philip Fothergill, party president, and Frank Byers, chairman of the executive, the reorganization teams are checking up on membership and finances in "grass-roots" areas and setting targets for increasing the number of active supporters. Efforts are also being made to improve co-ordination between headquarters and the local parties.

CANADIAN AT WORK

One of the local officials helping in the campagin in the south of England is Mrs. Agnes Scoto of Toronto and Hamilton, Ont., chairman and acting agent in Esher, Surrey. Mrs. Scott came to Britain from Canada in 1947.

The Liberal assembly is to be at Hastings, Sussex. Apart from the suggestion that the party should be rechristened, the chief resolution will probably be one on international affairs. This in general supports the cold war against Communism but says that when aggression has ceased in Asia "all the non-Communist powers should be willing to recognize the Chinese People's Republic as the effective government of China, and to give proper weight to its views on the settlement of the grave political problems of Eastern Asia."

Full reports on the progress of the reorganization campaign will also be made at Hastings.

Alberta Hockey Player Freed

TIFFIN, O., April 30 (AP)—The Seneca county grand jury Tuesday returned a "no bill" on a charge of second degree manslaughter filed against Arthur Michaluk, 28, of Canmore, Alta.

Michaluk plays hockey with Providence of the American Hockey League.

State highway patrolmen filed the charge last Saturday after the death of John W. Tewalt, 27, a milk truck driver. Tewalt was hurt in a collision with Michaluk's car on Friday, eight miles east of here. Shortly after the accident Michaluk was fined $40 and costs in mayor's court for driving over a centre line on the roadway.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Throat, Nose Cause Of Hearing Troubles

By EDWIN JORDAN, M.D.

The ability to hear well is a precious quality which must be preserved if at all possible, and if not, which must be relieved to the greatest possible degree. In recognition of this, National Hearing Week will be observed this year from May 4 to 10, and several columns this week will therefore be devoted to the problem of better hearing.

Hearing difficulties are not rare; it is said that one person out of 10 needs some kind of hearing help, but it is encouraging that so much is being done to prevent difficulty and to aid those who do have some hearing troubles.

An interesting report on a conservation of hearing program for school children comes from Hartford County, Maryland. During the three-year period of a survey, 70 per cent of the children in the county's schools were screened for hearing defects.

About one child out of seven, among the 7,000 tested, failed to have perfect hearing as shown by the original test and was referred for further study.

Out of the 1,118 youngsters who failed the original test, 712 showed a certain type of hearing defect called chronic conduction deafness, which was nearly always associated with chronic or acute infections of the upper breathing tract—most commonly, infected tonsils and adenoids.

One hundred-ninety children had their tonsils and adenoids removed, though this number was only about one-third of those for whom it had been recommended.

Of those for whom this procedure was done, about seven out of 10 showed definite improvement in hearing. Only about three out of 10 of those for whom it was recommended, but was not done, showed any hearing improvement.

NO NEED TO WAIT

The degree of hearing improvement was about the same in older and in younger children. So there seems to be no reason for waiting to have the tonsils and adenoids removed to conserve hearing, if removal is otherwise indicated, merely because a child is older. In other words, the operation should not be postponed merely in the hope of improvement.

This experience is only one of several attempts to conserve hearing. It is, of course, better to save good hearing than to try to treat it once it has gone bad, and therefore, efforts to do this should be encouraged.

In closing this column, I should like to mention the fact that the American Hearing Society (817 14th St., N.W., Washington, 5, D.C.) is a national headquarters for information relating to hearing. The Volta Bureau (1537 35th St., N.W., Washington 7, D.C.) also distributes pamphlets on this subject.

Saanich Grows Rhubarb Ripe, Rhubarb Red

Saanich rhubarb is in the spotlight along Victoria's wholesale row, despite competition from hourly arrivals of fruits and vegetables from United States and Mexico.

It is the reddest and largest rhubarb to be sold in Victoria this year, and different to the Fraser Valley forced rhubarb which has been selling in local stores.

Another new entry on the increasing list of produce arriving in Victoria daily is the season's first shipment of cantaloupe from Mexico.

Notable by their absence are potatoes. Although the potato scarcity caused by the U.S. black market has shown little or no improvement for the past few weeks, wholesalers state they are expecting a let-up shortly.

Produce distributors stated today that some new potatoes are expected to arrive from California shortly. Meanwhile, a few high-grade seed potatoes are still available in local stores.

Wholesalers are awaiting a new shipment of bananas, which is due to arrive here either today or Wednesday. At present there are only one dozen stalks of unripened left at the wholesale houses.

Glasgow-Victoria Sailings Resume

Monthly service from Scotland direct to Victoria and Vancouver will be resumed by Furness, Withy & Co. Ltd. with the sailing of Ss. Brazilian Prince from Glasgow June 9.

The service was suspended during the Second World War, and is being resumed as the shipping company replaces war losses.

Sailings will be maintained at intervals of approximately four months, and the ship will call at Los Angeles and San Francisco as well as the B.C. ports.

This is in addition to the Furness Line service from Manchester to the Pacific Coast, already back on a pre-war basis.

Sizeable Sum Unclaimed In Veterans' Credits

Although Department of Veterans' Affairs re-establishment credits have poured more than $7,000,000 into the economy of the Vancouver Island district since the end of the war, there is a sizable fortune still unclaimed on the ledgers at D.V.A. headquarters in the Belmont Building.

With wartime enlistments in the area totaling approximately 20,000, officials are unable to estimate the number of individual accounts still unsettled. To date 50,100 separate claims in whole or in part have been approved and settled in amount of $7,172,116.28 for an average of two and a half claims per enlisted veteran. This leaves an estimated unexpended balance of $1,078,000 still awaiting eligible veterans, if they can get approval of purchases or loans within 10 years of their discharge from the forces.

However, no date of termination has been set by the federal government on applications for Veterans' Land Act grants.

Purchases of household furnishings have accounted for the largest amount of claims, with purchase of homes second. Following is a breakdown of how the money was spent with the numbers of approved applications in brackets:

Homes, N.H.A. (124), $58,969.66; homes, other than N.H.A. including Central Mortgage (2,191), $973,499.59; repairs and modernization (7,262), $834,814.72; mortgages and encumbrances (604), $260,978.88; furnishings (33,334), $3,826,986.87; working capital (1,245), $254,934.23; tools and equipment (4,127), $713,696.60; purchases of businesses (441), $136,467.87; insurance (487), $84,271.40; education and training fees (279), $15,828.55; pensions under Militia Act (46), $11,463.33; W.V.A. recipients clothing (10), $204.58.

There is little likelihood of the credit keepers being closed out in the near future because members of the Korean force will be becoming eligible.

N.Y. Off as Strikes Hit Steel, Oil

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP).—The stock market backed down slowly today in the presence of strikes in the steel and oil industries.

Prices were kept on the losing side by fractions to around two points. There were scattered fractional plus signs.

Volume came to an estimated 1,100,000 shares.

Trading was fast at the start but soon slowed. Prices leaned lower in the beginning and then edged off still more. Just before mid-day, the railroads perked up and rose above their lows. A few gains were registered, but the remainder of the market didn't follow that recovery bid.

Lower were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Atlantic Coast Line, New York Central, Northern Pacific, Texas Co., Lion Oil, American Smelting, Kennecott Copper and Allied Chemical.

Canadian issues were mixed. Hiram Walker was up ½, and Distillers-Seagrams gained ⅛. Canadian Pacific fell ¼, McIntyre dropped ½, Dome Mines and International Nickel both remained unchanged.

Toronto Loss Checked Late

TORONTO, April 30 (CP)—Slightly firmer support today toward the stock market's close checked a ragged decline.

Moderate support recovered some oil losses as the session progressed and held industrials, golds and metals to moderate losses.

Papers posted a scattered list of fractional losses to form industrials' weakest section. Agricultures, constructions and textiles also slipped.

But utilities, steels, refining oils, banks, manufacturing companies and miscellaneous issues held gains and losses in balance. Liquors and retail stores were firm.

Industrial dealings remained in selected leading issues and few oils, metals or golds attracted speculative interest. Volume for the session was about 2,400,000 shares.

Western oils showed a broad list of declines. Leading issues posted losses ranging to about 50 cents but most issues showed penny changes.

Montreal Decline

MONTREAL, April 30 (CP)—Stock exchange and curb market prices continued to decline near the close today.

With the exception of Dominion Glass which was down two points at 50 and McColl-Frontenac down a point to 35¼, changes were fractional.

Senior metals led the downturn, while carriers, senior oils, papers and miscellaneous industrials eased slightly.

Beverages and banks posted small gains while utilities and steels were mixed.

Mines and western oils lost as much as 25 cents in active trading.

Vancouver Slips

VANCOUVER, April 30.—Noon close: Trading was sluggish on the Vancouver Stock Exchange in the early session today and all sections of the market were slightly lower at the close.

Leading western oils received strong support in mid-session which checked a slow decline but faded towards the finish. Base metal leaders also slipped. Pacific Nickel traded around 49, off a couple of points. Industrials shaded downward.

London Firm

LONDON, April 30 (Reuters).—The start of the new trading period brought little new business to the stock exchange today.

Major movements were again in foreign bonds. Japanese finished slightly lower on the day. Germans were patchy. The potash issues lost about two points on bearish press comment.

Government securities finished dull and widely one-eighth lower following news that a large block of a new Tanganyika loan had been placed in London.

Industrials were mainly quiet. Textiles showed gains up to six pence. Heavy engineerings gave ground.

Oils closed small fractions harder, though the undertone was sensitive to the United States oil workers' strike.

LONDON, April 30 (AP)—Stock closings: Babcock & Wilcox 66s 3d, Boots Pure Drug 20s 3d, Canadian Pacific $65, Central Mining £1 23/32, Consolidated Gold Fields 40s, Courtaulds 38s ½d, Hudson's Bay Co. 203s 8d, Imperial Chemical 43s ½d, Imperial Tobacco 83s 9d, Metal Box 46s 9d, Mexican Eagle 22s, Rand Mines 91s 3d.

Bonds—British 2½ per cent Consols £60, British 3½ per cent War Loans £77 9/16, British Fundings 4s 1960-1990 £97.

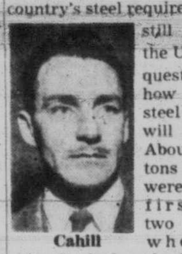
Steel Supplies Set Two Weeks

By BURKE CAHILL, Times Business Editor

The steel strike in the United States has already hit stock markets hard and will reach over into this country to disrupt many production programs.

Last year the U.S. turned out over 100,000,000 tons of steel, against 4,000,000 tons produced in Canada. The bulk of this country's steel requirements must still come from the U.S. The big question now is how long the steel shutdown will continue. About 1,000,000 tons of steel were lost in the first shutdown two weeks ago when furnaces were banked and plants in the U.S. closed.



Cahill

Officials in the steel industry estimate that the economy could stand a two-week stoppage of steel output, but not much more.

SUPPLIES EASIER

In the past several months, the steel supply situation has eased substantially. Business inventories, 8,000,000 tons in 1950, are now estimated near 16,000,000 to 17,000,000 tons. At the prevailing rate of production, about 2,000,000 tons a week, Britain's 1,000,000 tons could still be shipped and supplies to Canada could be maintained. Beyond that, the entire industrial production of the country must be cut back.

However, there is hope of a settlement within the two next weeks. The leaders of the steel industry know that they will have to grant some increases, as recommended by the U.S. wage board. These increases will have to be retroactive.

But the price relief to the industry, a hike of $5 a ton, can only be obtained in the future. Therefore, the longer the industry holds out against the wage demands, the greater the overall financial losses to the steel companies.

CANADA STEEL

At the annual meeting of the Steel Company of Canada, held Tuesday in Toronto, H. G. Hilton, president, reported that production had continued to gain in the first quarter of this year. Output of steel climbed ahead of any similar period in the company's history, he said.

"There are growing indications that the supply of steel is catching up with demand and that a return to more competitive conditions may be expected in the not too distant future," Mr. Hilton added.

This adds up to indications of a fair steel supply situation in Canada at the moment, too. So even though Canada normally uses about 8,000,000 tons a year, while producing 4,000,000 tons of steel, the improved supply conditions on both sides of the American border make it seem likely that it will take about two weeks for the real pinch on steel supplies to be felt.

Meanwhile, now that the U.S. courts have killed the dangerous precedent set by the president's steel seizure, there is hope for direct settlement between the industry and the steel workers before serious disruption of production occurs.

Officers and directors of Anglo-Canadian Pulp & Paper Mills were re-elected at the annual meeting of the company, it was announced today. The new president is E. M. Little, who also heads Gaspesia Sulphite Company Limited, a subsidiary.

Annual report of the company, showing net profit of $4,246,134 for 1951 compared with $3,014,251 for the previous year, was approved. Revenue per share was $4.04 compared with $2.87 in 1950.

Powell River Company Limited will pay a quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share, it was announced at the annual meeting by president Harold S. Foley. The dividend will be payable to shareholders of record June 14.

Mr. Foley said decision as to an extra dividend has been deferred until later in the year.

Home Oil Company Ltd. continues to be an independent company directed in Western Canada.

Major James R. Lowery, chairman, told the annual meeting in Calgary that if there were any control by one big company he would not be on the board. Rumors that control had been acquired by another company were ended when Major Lowery produced enough proxies to maintain his policy that the company should remain an independent, progressive entity for development of western oil resources, directed in the west.

The board as elected comprises business men all resident in the four western provinces, seven of the nine being Albertans and four of the nine being presidents of large operating oil companies.

C.N.R. Traffic Volume Up

OTTAWA, April 29 (CP)—The Canadian National Railways looks for about the same traffic volume in 1952 as its record 1951 figure, president Donald Gordon today told the commons' special railway committee.

Mr. Gordon was giving evidence as the committee concluded a two-day annual study of the government-owned system's 1951 operations and its budget for the current year. The committee approved the reports of the C.N.R. and the Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships, Ltd.

The 1951 budget, showing all-time peak operating revenues of $663,000,000 and operating expenses of $613,000,000, forecast an overall deficit of $18,025,000 after interest charges.

BRIDGE LESSON

by Oswald Jacoby

When today's hand came along in the recent eastern tournament, West was sick and tired of all the smart-aleck opponents who bid suits that they didn't really hold. This was one time that West was going to show up the psychic bid so that East would know what suit to lead.

So West doubled two clubs, never dreaming that the hand would be played there. Naturally North redoubled to show the power of his hand. East couldn't very well run out to spades, and he shuddered at the thought of bidding diamonds. Besides, he hoped South would run out. But South was happy enough to stay where he was. And so was West—for a short time.

West opened the jack of hearts and dummy won with the king. Declarer cashed the ace of clubs and entered his hand with the queen of hearts to lead the jack of clubs. West hopped up with the king of clubs, and East dropped the eight. This confirmed declarer's very strong suspicion that West had started with five trumps.

West shifted to spades, but dummy won with the ace. Declarer then led the ace of hearts from dummy, allowing West to ruff. This reduced West to two trumps, while South had three.

West led his other spade, and South ruffed. Declarer next cashed the queen of clubs, leaving one trump in his own hand and one trump in the West hand. Then South returned to hearts.

By this time it was obvious to West that he could not set the contract. East's discouraging discards in diamonds also indicated that South held the king of that suit. West didn't want to ruff a heart and then lead diamonds to South, so he discarded two diamonds on the fourth and fifth hearts.

Declarer now had eight tricks safely home. It was therefore safe to lead his last trump, forcing West into the lead. West had to lead away from his diamonds after all, giving South an extra trick.

South scored 710 points for the redoubled contract with an overtrick—far more than the value of the game in hearts that was made at most of the other tables.

IN TUNE WITH THE TIMES

With TOMMIE WALTERS

The story of Puccini's triple-tragic opera "La Tosca" is brutally simple—so much so in fact that the critics, who attended its premiere in 1900 at the Constanzi Theatre in Rome condemned it for its realism. "A conspiracy, a torture scene, and an execution by firing squad are hardly appropriate subjects to be set to music," one of them wrote in disgust. But today "La Tosca" is one of the mainstays of the operatic repertoire. It is based on a play, by the French author Victorien Sardou, which Puccini found an ideal operatic source since, as he said, any audience could follow the plot without understanding a single word. Its scene is set in Rome at the time of the Napoleonic Wars. Cavaradossi, an artist, is in love with Tosca, a celebrated singer. He befriends Angelotti, a revolutionary on the run, and by helping him becomes embroiled in the schemes of the malevolent chief of police, Scarpi.

* * *

This conflict of love and hate, with Tosca and Scarpi as the chief protagonists, is said to have affected Puccini so deeply that whenever he played the more pathetic passages on the piano he would weep quite openly. As if to make amends for the harsh brutality of the story, he gave Cavaradossi two of the finest tenor arias he ever wrote. In fact, Nicholas Goldschmidt, who will conduct the C.B.C. Opera Company in tonight's "C.B.C. Wednesday Night" production of the opera, believes that three of the world's finest operatic arias, irrespective of voice, are in this work. "La Tosca," he says, "is first-class theatre with superb melodies. It is a very exciting and dramatic work which always presents a big challenge to the three principal singers." Heard in the cast of tonight's performance will be Elizabeth Benson Guy, Gilles Lamontagne, Jimmie Shields, Andrew MacMillan, Jan Rubes, Gordon Wry and Glen Gardiner. Broadcast time is 7.30 on CBU.

Winch Pursues Premier With Promises, Denials

(Special to The Times)

DUNCAN, April 30 — After a slap and a promise, Harold Winch, C.C.F. leader, swung north on the heels of Premier Byron Johnson in search of support in Island hustings Tuesday night.

Declaring that Premier Johnson had removed the rights of private members during the last session of the legislature and that the government which the premier claimed had no mandate passed a budget of $142,000,000, and added borrowing powers making a total expenditure of $186,000,000, Mr. Winch said there would be more money come out of the natural resources of the province and less out of the pockets of the people if the C.C.F. got into office.

He was addressing a meeting on behalf of R. M. Strachan, candidate for Cowichan-Newcastle.

A C.C.F. government if elected would bring power production and distribution under public ownership, thereby giving maximum service at minimum cost, he pledged.

"Do you want honesty or hypocrisy?" Mr. Winch asked. "Do you want dictatorship or democracy?"

He accused the present government of dictatorship. The hypocrisy of the Liberals and Conservatives, he said, was astounding when he referred to the 73-point program of the Liberal party. Many of its items, he said, already had been carried out or at least passed by the legislature.

The C.C.F. leader referred to the net profit of $51,000,000 made by Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, comparing it to the $1,400,000 received by the government from the mines of British Columbia.

QUARREL WITH FIGURES

He also declared that the cost of building the P.G.E. from Squamish to North Vancouver would be nearer $9,000,000 than $3,000,000, though the Premier had estimated the latter.

Madame Speaker in the legislature had acted as Charley McCarthy to the Premier's Edgar Bergen in ruling every amendment out of order, he charged.

He pledged the C.C.F. to seven planks of its platform which would and could be implemented immediately on taking office, and declared: The wealth and production of B.C. is based on God-given resources and the work of the people, and at present it is not a fair partnership. He denied a C.C.F. government would drive industry away from B.C. as power and resources were here, and industry would come here and remain no matter what government was in power.

"Do you think the C.C.F. would adopt policies that would endanger the standard of living?" he asked.

Mr. Strachan contended that B.C. school boards had been robbed of their autonomy by the provincial government, since it had provided 50 per cent of building costs of new schools. He calimed the boards were subservient to the department of education and had lost control of their own affairs.

Canadian Camera Experts Praised

TORONTO, April 30 (CP)—Canadian photographers are as good as any others in the world, Rex Frost, Toronto broadcaster and photographer, said Tuesday.

He spoke at the opening of the diamond jubilee international salon of photography, arranged by the Toronto Camera Club in affiliation with the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain and the Photographic Society of America. Three of Mr. Frost's photographs are included in the exhibition.

"The work of Maritimes and western Canadian photographers in this show is more arty and imaginative than that from central Canada," said Mr. Frost, chairman of the Toronto Camera Club's exhibition committee.

Canadians represented include James A. McVie, Victoria and Dr. Joseph S. Bricker, Vancouver.

Plants Returned To East Germans

BERLIN, April 30 (AP)—The East German government announced Tuesday its Russian occupiers are returning for nationalization network of 66 industrial plants—including chemical, coal, dynamite, automobile and machine works—by the end of May.

The enterprises have been operated by Soviet corporations since the war and their output has gone almost wholly for Russian consumption.

Rejected Suitor Takes Own Life

VANCOUVER, April 30 (CP)—John Passmore, 47, proposed marriage to his girl friend in a downtown beer parlor Monday night. He was rejected.

Tuesday, Passmore's body was found in his gas-filled bedroom with all five jets on a gas stove wide open.

Police listed it a case of suicide.

Further Gains Predicted for British Labor

LONDON, April 30 (Reuters).—Conservative and Labor vote getters are out in force this week, whipping up supporters for the second round of the local election battle throughout the country next week.

The Labor Party, bolstered by huge successes in the first round election of county councils, expects to make more gains in next week's municipal polling. The Conservatives are on the defensive, saying they hold so many seats already they can't expect to make gains.

The elections, May 5 to May 13, will involve a turnover of 20,000 seats on borough, district, rural and parish councils.

At present the anti-socialists—labeled Conservatives, independents, ratepayers' association candidates, and others—outnumber the socialists by between three and four to one.

The Conservatives know their position is exposed. They claim this is due to socialist electioneering exploiting the country's dissatisfaction with Prime Minister Churchill's six-month-old government.

Labor gained 409 seats in the county elections and now holds 12 of the 62 councils against a former eight.

Bread Cheaper

LONDON, April 30 (AP)—The Yugoslav government announced Tuesday it will cut the price of bread and flour from six to 16 per cent beginning May 1.

Belgrade Radio said the reduction will range from two-thirds of a cent to nearly three cents on a kilogram (2.2 pounds) of bread. It is the first reduction since bread and flour were taken off the ration list last year.

Growing Pains

EDMONTON, April 30 (CP)—An economic survey informed Edmontonians Tuesday that there are headaches as well as joys in being at the centre of an oil boom.

Abnormal population increases "due entirely to oil activity" have resulted in additional debt costs of $20,000,000 since 1948, said the survey, prepared for the Chamber of Commerce by a firm of economic consultants.

The report foresaw continued phenomenal growth to a population of more than 210,000 by 1962, but with the city's debt mounting rapidly in the effort to provide services for the heavy influx of new residents.

The chamber said the conclusions are those of the authors of the survey, and that the chamber neither completely endorses nor rejects them.

The report said that to keep pace with its growth, Edmonton will have to spend $50,000,000 in the next five years on capital construction.

Royal Academy Displays Paintings By Alexander

LONDON, April 30 (CP).—Three oil paintings by Field Marshal Earl Alexander will be on public view at the Royal Academy starting Saturday, it was learned today.

The paintings have Canadian titles—one is called "Ottawa" and another "Gatineau River"—and were painted when Britain's new defense minister was in Canada as Governor-General.

The Royal Academy exhibition runs until Aug. 24. Some 1,579 works were chosen by the selection committee headed by Sir Gerald Kelly, president of the academy.

One of Lord Alexander's paintings, "From My Studio Window," hangs in Gallery No. 1. Nearby is a landscape by another versatile statesman and amateur painter—Prime Minister Churchill.

Countess Alexander said today her husband submitted five paintings. "Three out of five—that's pretty good, isn't it?" she said. All are snow scenes, one with a silhouette of Ottawa in the background.

Famous Dancer Admits She's Always Clothed

COLUMBUS, O., April 30 (AP)—Sally Rand bared her trade secret to the Ohio Liquor Board and said sadly she might as well retire now that it's out.

I'm always clothed during my act, said Sally—really. It's that doggone mousseline de soie that does it.

Miss Rand—blonde and pert in a high-necked blue dress—appeared here Tuesday as a witness for a Canton tavern operator charged with staging a "lewd, indecent, and immoral" show.

"I might as well retire now that my secret is out," Sally said after the hearing.

Here's how it came out:

Tully V. Foster, owner of the Club Casablanca, said he paid Miss Rand $1,000 to dance with her fans.

In the audience one night were a state liquor agent, a reporter and a radio reporter.

APPEARED NAKED

Foster, acting as his own counsel, called Miss Rand to the stand today and asked her what she wore during her act.

"You wouldn't ask a magician to tell how he pulls a rabbit out of a hat?" said Sally.

The liquor board persevered.

"Well," said Miss Rand, "in all my years of fan dancing, I always wear a leotard"—a garment used by acrobats that covers the torso.

It's made of mousseline de soie, imported from Paris—a kind of lace that looks like skin. Sometimes, she added, filmy panties and brassiere. These are taped on.

Newfoundland's Debut In Canada Drama Tests

BY JOHN MOSHER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

SAINT JOHN, N.B., April 30 (CP) — Newfoundland made its debut in the Dominion Drama Festival Tuesday night.

Adjudicator Michel St.-Denis said the performance by the St. John's Players Workshop Group was much better than the play, Edward Percy's "Ladies in Retirement."

He complimented the players on originality in acting. Their actions were "full of grace" and the style reminded him of Irish actors. The exciting acting made him think of plays, such as the Celtic primitives, they could do better.

On the adverse side, he found the play too long, dragging at times, with the wrong tempo in final scenes. There was a tendency to monotony as well as vocal weakness.

The first matinee of festival week was due this afternoon when the Halifax Theatre Arts Guild presents Philip Barry's "Second Threshold." It will be followed tonight by the Regina Little Theatre Society with "Tomorrow the World," by James Gow and Arnaud D'Usseau.

Drew Pearson Not Guilty of Libel, Ruling

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP).—U.S. District Judge James W. Morris Tuesday dismissed a $225,000 libel suit brought by Mrs. Mary G. Gariepy of Detroit against Drew Pearson.

The suit grew out of a statement by Pearson in a radio broadcast January 30, 1949. He said: "Detroit. The justice and treasury departments have ordered the prosecution of Dr. Bernard F. Gariepy of Royal Oak, Mich., in a strange tax case indirectly involving Father Coughlin. Dr. Gariepy's defense is that Father Coughlin gave him $68,000 because of alienation of affections of Mrs. Gariepy by the radio priest. The justice department plans to prosecute Gariepy anyway."

"There can be alienation of affections without the slightest unchaste conduct being involved," Judge Morris said, adding:

"If any intimation or innuendo accompanied the words which were used by defendant Pearson, from a reading of the statement in its entire context, it is that defendant Pearson did not believe the statement of Dr. Gariepy to be credible, and that such was also the view of the justice department."

INDIAN TOBACCO

NEW DELHI (CP)—A new tobacco research station is being constructed in Madhira in Hyderabad State. Virginia tobacco is mostly cultivated in this area and the station will supply improved varieties of tobacco plant seedlings.

FIREMEN CANVASSING CITY WITH PETITION OF PROTEST

B.C. Industrial Boom Menaced

Severe Setbacks Forecast as Result Of Embargo; Oil Pipeline May Suffer

Bearing out what industrial leaders are saying across the province, officials at Victoria dockyards forecast an eventual slowdown because of the United States steel strike.

At Vancouver severe setbacks in British Columbia's booming industrial expansion threatened today as a result of the U.S. embargo on steel shipments and the steel workers' strike.

NEED PIPE

Major projects in pipelines, hydroelectric, pulp, chemicals and building construction are faced with varying degrees of new difficulty as American mills closed.

The Aluminum Company of Canada, however, reported that the embargo and strike will have no immediate serious effect on its multi-million dollar construction project in northern B.C.

Deliveries of pipe from Consolidated Western Steel Company of San Francisco might seriously hamper the Trans-Mountain oil pipeline.

There was no immediate comment from the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Ltd., which has a large construction program under way.

In Victoria, the two major yards, Victoria Machinery Depot and Yarrows, are both busy at present on a variety of new construction, re-build and repair jobs, in most of which steel plays an important part.

Like other Canadian industries, they have been taking U.S. steel on a monthly allocation basis.

SHIPBUILDING

"Even a strike of two weeks or a month would effect our deliveries for up to six months," Harold Husband, managing director of V.M.D. explained. "Our allocation will be cut off and not resumed until the U.S. steel industry has built up its inventories.

Even before the strike, shipyard activities here have been hampered by short supplies of steel.

Steel is available for projects which the provincial public works department has underway, it was learned today.

However, if the U.S. steel strike should be prolonged it it might delay actual undertaking of certain projects now in the planning stage.

Steel is chiefly required for bridge building.

"We have enough to go on with for the present," C. K. Saunders, chief engineer for provincial bridge constructions, assured. "We won't be affected unless the strike should last an unusually long time."

GOVERNMENT SEEKS DELAY

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP).—Government lawyers said today they will take to the Supreme Court within six days an appeal from Judge David Pine's ruling that the steel seizure was illegal.

Holmes Baldridge, chief government lawyer, filed formal papers with the U.S. Court of Appeals asking an immediate stay pending a Supreme Court review of Pine's ruling.

A "stay" would nullify for the time being an order from Pine that the mills must be returned to their private owners.

650,000 Workers Idle In Quickest Shutdown

PITTSBURGH, April 30 (AP).—Steelworkers who struck when a judge said the United States government could not be their boss throttled steel production today in the quickest steel-plant shutdown in history.

A halt in the defence-vital steel industry within hours seemed certain. About 650,000 workers are idle.

Mill after mill went silent as companies and union maintenance crews banked furnaces following hours of confusion at the start of the walkout Tuesday night.

President Philip Murray of both the C.I.O. and the United Steelworkers' Union ordered the strike when a federal judge ruled that President Truman acted illegally in seizing the steel industry April 9 to avert a strike.

FEAR DAMAGE

Executives feared the unprecedented haste with which workers poured out of the plants would damage equipment. But their worries appeared groundless.

In many plants workers themselves made sure standby crews remained to cool off furnaces.

At Cleveland, Republic Steel Corp., reported its plants throughout the U.S. will be completely shut down within three hours. In the past, steel companies have taken two and three days to complete an orderly shut-down.

The first unemployment in allied industry was reported by U.S. Steel, which said all its coal miners have been furloughed.

The steel stoppage began in Gary, Ind., within an hour after a federal judge nullified government seizure of the steel industry.

Pickets popped up at plant gates everywhere. Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Buffalo and Baltimore were among the first to report workers walking out.

DROP TOOLS

Most of the workers waited until their local union offices received Murray's cease-work order. But many of them dropped their tools and picked up their lunch boxes as soon as they heard of the court decision.

The U.S.W.'s contract with practically all major steel producers expired Jan. 1. Union-industry negotiations produced no new pact. Federal mediators failed to break the deadlock on the union's demand for an 18½ cent hourly wage boost, union shop and other objectives.

A 17½-cent hourly pay increase and a union shop, plus other benefits was recommended. U.S.W. accepted. Industry balked. President Truman averted a strike April 9 by seizing the steel industry. The companies successfully fought the action by getting a federal court injunction. An hour later they were strike-bound.

Wheeling Steel Corp. was one of the few companies which reported damage to plant facilities as a result of the hasty leave-taking of workers.

Guess some o' th' boys at th' "one fire hall too many" think there's one city hall too many too.

B.C. Loggers Seek Conciliation

VANCOUVER, April 30 (CP).—Negotiations for 1952 forestry industry wage contracts ended here today and union officials said they will seek a conciliation board.

The International Woodworkers of America (C.C.L.) demanded general wage increase of 35 cents an hour. Current basic hourly rate is $1.29½.

Operators proposed a 10 per cent wage cut for some classifications and no change for the other workers.

Mayhew Wants U.S. Tariffs Cut

VANCOUVER, April 30 (CP).—A plea for reduction in tariffs to aid the Canadian fishing industry was made today by Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew.

Addressing the fisheries council convention, he said it was recognized that consumption of 10 or 11 pounds of fish by each person in Canada was too small to support an industry. "The protein value in fish is something we need in our diet."

Shooting of Plane 'Uncivilized'

BERLIN, April 30 (Reuters).—The West tonight replied to Russia's version of the attack on an air France plane over East Germany yesterday with a flat accusation that it is "contrary to all standards of civilized behavior" to fire on unarmed aircraft in time of peace.

The western letter was sent in answer to Russia's protest that the liner, shot up on the way to Berlin with injuries to three persons aboard, strayed from the 20-mile-wide air corridor to the city.

Ike Registers Smashing Triumph in Primary Vote

BOSTON, April 30 (AP)—General Eisenhower's popular vote total passed the 229,000 mark in the Massachusetts primary today, and a near-sweep of the delegate elections virtually closed the gap between him and Sen. Robert Taft in their race for the Republican presidential nomination.

It was almost a shutout by Eisenhower, his most convincing primary victory to date.

Along with his overwhelming count in the Republican election, Eisenhower also got a Democratic vote big enough to put him in second place behind Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, the expected winner.

When reporters gave him the figures at an airport in Frankfurt, Germany, the general grinned and said: "Is that good?" Later, in Paris, he said the results were "an overpowering sort of thing. It has begun to look kind of serious."

Massachusetts has 38 grand old party convention votes, and Eisenhower today has 29 of them as a result of 27 victories and two previously allotted by agreement. Taft won one delegate and also got two by agreement. The other six presumably will be uncommitted at the nomination convention next July.

Eisenhower's country-wide delegate total moved up to 265 as a result of the added delegates. Three more for Taft put his tally at 268, although his managers are claiming 305.

Vest-Pocket Venus

Mona Freeman, named "Vest-Pocket Venus" in a Hollywood poll, proves that she really fits into a vest pocket. Mona won the title because of her diminutive but delightful proportions.

Suspect Is Cleared

A worker in the Gordon Head Military Camp cook house, who was suspected of being a typhoid carrier and caused imposition of a close quarantine at the camp Tuesday, was found today to be perfectly well.

The quarantine was in force at 8.15 a.m., and was lifted the same night.

At first suspicion that there might be cause for an outbreak of disease the army acted swiftly.

"Suspicion was aroused through a routine medical check," an army spokesman said. "The army medical people advised us to take quarantine action, so we didn't waste any time."

The camp has resumed its normal activity, he said.

Protection 'Inadequate' Union Spokesman Says

Victoria firemen began a house-to-house canvass today appealing to taxpayers to urge maintenance of the Yates Street fire hall and the present staff.

The petition is being circulated by Local No. 730 of the International Association of Firefighters on grounds that "the public is entitled to and wants adequate fire protection."

David M. Pye, union president, said the fire department at present is dangerously low in manpower.

"It would be rendered incapable of providing anything near adequate protection to the business and residential areas of the city if the council carries out its intention to reduce the department by 14 men," he said.

The union planned to interview Mayor Claude Harrison this afternoon.

Earlier today Fire Chief Frank Briers said any loss of life resulting from abolition of the hall and reduction of staff will be on the shoulders of the mayor and aldermen.

He said he would assume no responsibility.

"The department is entirely unbalanced," he said. "They'll be responsible for loss of life or anything else from here on. They're not holding me responsible."

In the area being serviced by the Yates Street fire hall there are 14 schools and 21 nursing homes, according to David M. Pye, president of the firemen's union.

Included are St. Joseph's Hospital, Royal Jubilee and Veterans Hospital and homes for the aged men and women.

Council sitting as a committee of the whole on estimates Tuesday approved a recommendation from Ald. Waldo Skillings, chairman of fire wardens that the No. 2 hall be abolished and 20 firemen dismissed at May 31. The figure was later altered to 14 firemen. The department itself estimates about 18. There are four halls at present.

Protection Said 'Very Thin'

Ald. Skillings felt the Burnside Hall and James Bay Hall could handle the area now covered by the Yates Street station. Union officials said it was spreading the protection "very thinly."

"They're balancing lives against dollars," said Mr. Pye. "We don't feel the taxpayer wants economy that way.

"We know if we had a major conflagration with a double alarm in the city and a householder's home caught fire, it would burn to the ground."

When Chief Brier's letter of protest was read at council Tuesday, Ald. Skillings indicated it was routine for a man in that position to write as he had done.

"It was no formality as far as I am concerned," said the chief.

When asked today if it was a warning, he said yes. He said the fire service will be drastically curtailed.

Ald. Frank Mulliner at Tuesday's meeting termed it "discourtesy" that the chief was not advised of the fire warden's recommendation. Ald. Brent Murdoch and Ald. Jim Neely said they felt the chief should have been called in.

"In addition to a fire insurance rate boost, taxpayers will have to take out additional private fire insurance because of the curtailed service," said one union official.

"They are endeavoring to save money but are taking away from the taxpayers a vital cog in the civic machine," said Mr. Pye.

If 14 men are dismissed it will include two probationers, nine third-class firemen and three second-class firemen. If 20 are let go, five first-class firemen—men with four years' experience—will be included.

Vancouver Stocks Closing Prices

Trading at Vancouver Stock Exchange in the closing session today was confined mainly to interest in senior oil issues and base metals. Price lines tilted downward towards to close.

Among the oils Britalta traded around $6.50; Okalta, $4.35; Pacific Pete, $13.25; York, 45; Continental, $2.66 and Calvan, $7.25.

New Hospital Insurance Scheme in Tory Platform

VANCOUVER, April 30 (CP).—A new plan of government hospital insurance, on a non-compulsory and non-monopolistic basis with the elimination of co-insurance, was proposed today in a 12-point platform presented to the Progressive Conservative party convention here.

The platform, presented for approval of the 250 convention delegates, said: "We recognized the widespread dissatisfaction with the hospital insurance service as presently carried on in the province."

The platform also pledges a review of school finances, and affirms the party's "belief in the democratic system of non-sectarian schools as at present established by law in British Columbia."

The platform also pledges a reduction by 30 per cent in the cost of license fees on all passenger automobiles.

Other planks call for appointment of a commission of inquiry to review the present forest management policy; extension of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway into Vancouver "with the final object in view of extending the railway from Prince George into the Peace River area."

Dealing with labor-management relations, the platform says:

"The B.C. Progressive Conservative party is pledged to give consideration to the reports of the Industrial Conciliation Act inquiry board report, and to the report of Chief Justice Sloan on the Workmen's Compensation Act, at the next session of the Legislature, in the best interests of labor, consumers and industry."

A commission of inquiry into forest management would be asked to make recommendations as to how:

1. To ensure perpetual yield of our forests. 2. Provide adequate opportunity for small loggers, mill operators and all others who desire to use and develop the forest resources of the province. 3. To safeguard for the public the mining, power, fishing and recreational resources within all management license areas.

Other planks in the platform are:

Highways: We propose to continue and to accelerate the highway program laid down by the Conservative section of the Coalition in 1943, which has been carried out continuously since then.

Agriculture: We advocate a reorganization and extension of the services of the department of agriculture, to make the services of the department, particularly in the information field, more widely available to the farmers.

We propose to negotiate with the federal government to make the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act applicable to the whole of B.C., so that our fertile but undeveloped agricultural areas can be brought under irrigation or be reclaimed.

Power development: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party will implement the Electric Power Act in accordance with the original intention of the legislation, to provide power and light to our rural areas.

Provincial-municipal taxation reform: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party proposes the payment of grants in all areas where there is provincial government real property.

Export trade: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party is deeply concerned over the deterioration of conditions in our basic industries in British Columbia due to loss of export trade.

Liquor plebiscite: The B.C. Progressive Conservative party stands for local option.
